CAP. XVIII.

An Act for enabling the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, to purchaſe the preſent Tolls and Duties payable for navigating upon the River Thames Weſtward of London-bridge, within the Liberties of the City of London, and for laying a ſmall Toll in lieu thereof, for the Purpoſe of more effectually completing the ſaid Navigation; and for other Purpoſes.

Preamble. 14 Geo. III. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act more effectually to improve and complete the Navigation of the River Thames, Weſtward of London-bridge, within the Liberties of the City of London, and to prevent any Veſſel or Barge from being moored in Taplow-mill Stream, in the County of Bucks; the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, were and are authoriſed and impowered to improve and complete the Navigation of the ſaid River, between the City of London and the City Stone above Staines bridge, in the County of Middleſex: And whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, have proceeded to carry the ſaid Act into Execution, and ſeveral neceſſary and expenſive Works have been performed within their Juriſdiction, between the City of London and the City Stone above Staines-bridge, whereby the Navigation hath been greatly improved, the Paſſage for Boats and Barges rendered more expeditious, and the Expences of navigating conſiderably reduced: And whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, have already applied near ten thouſand Pounds in this Service, out of their own Eſtates, but find that, notwithſtanding ſo large a Sum has been expended by them, other Works, very neceſſary for completing the Improvement of the ſaid Navigation, ſtill remain to be done, the probable Expence of which will, as the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, have been informed, amount to the additional Sum of near eight thouſand Pounds, over and above a conſiderable Expence that will annually be incurred in repairing and ſupporting the Works: And whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, are deſirous of being enabled to purchaſe the ſeveral Tolls and Duties or other Sums of Money now collected and taken for Barges and other Veſſels navigating, and for Horſes drawing ſuch Barges and Veſſels, within the Limits before-mentioned; and propoſe that the ſaid Tolls and Duties, or other Sums of Money ſo purchaſed by them, ſhall ceaſe and be no longer paid; as they apprehend, from the Circum-

'ſtances and Nature of the ſaid Tolls and Duties, and other Sums of Money, that they are attended with 'great Inconveniencies to the Navigation, and to the Public: And the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Com-'mons, in order to carry the good Purpoſes of the ſaid former Act into Execution, and to enable them to 'purchaſe the preſent Tolls and Duties, and Payments, and to complete the ſaid Navigation, are alſo de-'ſirous that they ſhould be impowered to lay a ſmall Toll, in lieu of the preſent Tolls and Duties, and 'Payments, upon the ſeveral Barges, Boats, and other Veſſels, navigating the ſaid River, between Lon-'don-bridge and the City Stone above Staines-bridge, according to the Quantity of Tonnage: But, as the 'ſame cannot be done without the Aid and Authority of Parliament,' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council aſſembled, and they are hereby impowered to treat and agree with the Owners and Occupiers of, and other Perſons intereſted in, the ſeveral Tolls and Duties and Payments, now collected and taken for Barges and other Veſſels navigating, and for Horſes drawing ſuch Barges and Veſſels, between the City of London and the City Stone above Staines-bridge, for the Purchaſe of ſuch Tolls and Duties; and with the Owners and Occupiers of, and other Perſons intereſted in, ſuch Lands or Grounds as they ſhall judge fit to be purchaſed for the Purpoſe of erecting Toll-houſes and Toll-gates, or other the Purpoſes of this Act.

Power given to the Mayor, &c. in Common Council aſſembled, to purchaſe the old Tolls and Duties, &c.

Bodies Politick, Truſtees, &c. impowered to ſell and convey Tolls, Duties, and Lands.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all Bodies Politick, Corporate, or Collegiate, or Corporations Aggregate or Sole, Truſtees and Feoffees in Truſt, Guardians and Committees for Lunaticks and Idiots, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Guardians whatſoever, not only for or on Behalf of themſelves, their Heirs and Succeſſors, but alſo for and on Behalf of their Ceſtuique Truſts, whether Infants or Iſſue unborn, Lunaticks, Idiots, Femes-covert, or other Perſons whatſoever; and to and for all Femes-covert who are or ſhall be ſeized in their own Right, and to and for all and every Perſon and Perſons whomſoever who are or ſhall be ſeized or poſſeſſed of, or intereſted in, any of the Tolls or Duties or Payments, now collected and taken, for Barges and other Veſſels navigating, or for Horſes drawing ſuch Barges and Veſſels, within the Limits herein-before mentioned, or any Lands or Grounds, which by the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council aſſembled, or Committee to be by them appointed, ſhall be thought neceſſary to be purchaſed for the Purpoſes of this Act, to ſell and convey all or any ſuch Tolls, Duties, Lands, and Grounds, or any Part thereof, to the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens; and that all Contracts, Agreements, Bargains, Sales, and Conveyances, which ſhall be made by ſuch Perſons as aforeſaid, ſhall be good and valid in Law, to all Intents and Purpoſes, not only to convey the Eſtate and Intereſt of the Perſon and Perſons conveying, but alſo to convey all Right, Eſtate, Intereſt, Uſe, Property, Claim, and Demand whatſoever, of their ſeveral and reſpective Ceſtuique Truſts, whether Infants or Iſſue unborn, Lunaticks, Idiots, Femes-covert, or other Perſons whomſoever, and all claiming, or to claim, by, from, or under them; any Law, Statute, Uſage, or any other Matter or Thing whatſoever, to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding: And that all ſuch Perſons ſo conveying as aforeſaid, are and ſhall be indemnified for what they ſhall do, by virtue of, or in purſuance of this Act, notwithſtanding any Omiſſion or Miſtake of Matter or Form whatſoever. And if it ſhall happen that any Perſon or Perſons, Body or Bodies Politick, Corporate or Collegiate, or other Perſon or Perſons ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of, or intereſted in, any ſuch Tolls, Duties, Lands, or Grounds, as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe to treat or agree for the Sale and Conveyance of their reſpective Eſtates and Intereſts therein, with the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council aſſembled, or with any Perſon or Perſons authoriſed by them, or ſhall not produce and evince a clear Title to the Premiſes they are in Poſſeſſion of, or to the Intereſt they claim, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council aſſembled, or to the Perſon or Perſons ſo authoriſed by them; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the ſaid City, to be holden in the outer Chamber of the Guildhall of the ſaid City, according to the Cuſtom of the ſaid City; and the ſaid Court is hereby impowered and authoriſed, to iſſue a Warrant or Warrants, Precept or Precepts, directed to the Sheriffs of the City of London, or the Sheriff of the County of Middleſex, or the Sheriff of the County of Surry, as the Caſe ſhall require, who are, and each of them is hereby authoriſed, directed, and required, accordingly, to impanel and return a competent Number of ſubſtantial and diſintereſted Perſons qualified to ſerve on Juries, not leſs than forty-eight, nor more than ſeventy-two, and out of ſuch Perſons ſo to be impanelled, ſummoned, and returned, a Jury of twelve Perſons ſhall be drawn by ſome Perſon to be by the ſaid Court appointed, in ſuch Manner as Juries for the Trial of Iſſues joined in his Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter (by an Act, made in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of Juries), are directed to be drawn; which Perſons ſo to be impannelled, ſummoned, and returned, as aforeſaid, are hereby required to come and appear before the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen, if the Tolls, Duties, Lands or Grounds in queſtion, are collected and taken, or lie in the ſaid City of London, or the Liberties thereof, at ſuch Time and Place, as in ſuch Warrant or Warrants, Precept or Precepts, ſhall be directed and appointed; and if the Tolls, Duties, Lands or Grounds in queſtion, are collected and taken, or lie in either of the Counties of Middleſex or Surry, to come and appear before the Juſtices of the Peace for the County where the Tolls or Duties are collected, or the Lands or Grounds in queſtion lie, at ſome General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be holden for the ſame County, or ſome Adjournment thereof; and to attend the ſaid Courts reſpectively, from Day to Day, until diſcharged by the ſaid Courts reſpectively; and all Parties concerned ſhall and may have their lawful Challenges againſt any of the ſaid Jurymen, but ſhall not be at Liberty to challenge the Array: And the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or Juſtices as aforeſaid, reſpectively, are hereby authoriſed and impowered, by Precept or Precepts, from Time to Time, as Occaſion ſhall require, to call before them all and every Perſon and Perſons whomſoever, who ſhall be thought Penalty on doing it, without giving proper Notice.

'XXXIII. And whereas ſome Makers of Glaſs, in giving Notice under the Directions of the ſaid recited 'Act, have neglected or refuſed to ſpecify the true Kind and Weight of the Metal or Preparation put into 'each particular Pot uſed for the making of Glaſs, and have alſo put in Metal or Materials into the Pot or 'Pots after a Gauge of the Metal therein hath been taken by the Officer, under Pretence that the ſame 'were Moyles or Glaſs of the preſent or of ſome former Making, by which Means the Revenue is greatly 'defrauded;' for Remedy whereof, it is hereby enacted and declared, That every Maker of Glaſs ſhall, in every Notice hereafter to be given, expreſs in Writing the particular Time and Hour when he intends to begin to fill or charge his Pot or Pots, and the Account of the true Weight of the Metal or Preparation to be made uſe of in each particular Pot uſed for the making of Glaſs, and the Species and particular Kind of Glaſs intended to be made in each Pot: And if any Maker of Glaſs ſhall neglect or refuſe to give the Notice by this preſent Act, and the ſaid recited Act, directed and required, or after ſuch Notice given, and a Gauge taken by the Officer of the Metal or Preparation in their Pots, ſhall, without a freſh Notice in Writing, put into any ſuch Pot any Metal, Material, or Preparation whatſoever, every ſuch Maker of Glaſs ſhall, in every ſuch Caſe, forfeit and loſe the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Particulars of the Notice to be given by Glaſs-makers before they charge their Pots.

Penalty on Neglect.

'XXXIV. And for the more effectual aſcertaining the Weight and Species of the Materials or Metal, 'or other Preparations made uſe of in the making of Glaſs, and preventing Frauds which may be com-'mitted therein, or in relation to ſuch Notice and Account hereby required to be reſpectively given, and 'in order that the ſame may be properly examined,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Gaugers, or other Officers of Exciſe, to take a Sample or Samples, not exceeding four Ounces in the Whole, out of each of the ſaid Pots, or any other Thing containing ſuch Preparations for making Glaſs as aforeſaid, paying for ſuch Sample or Samples (if demanded) the Sum of one Halfpenny for each Ounce; and in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall obſtruct or hinder the Gaugers, or other Officers of Exciſe, in taking ſuch Sample or Samples, he, ſhe, or they ſhall reſpectively forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Officers of Exciſe may take a Sample of the Materials out of each Pot, &c.

Penalty on obſtructing them.

'XXXV. And whereas it was further provided by the ſaid Act, That it ſhould be lawful for any Per-'ſon or Perſons who ſhould have actually paid his Majeſty's Duties by the ſaid Act payable for any Quan-'tity of Glaſs whatſoever made from any of the Materials thereby charged, and to and for any other 'Perſon or Perſons who ſhould buy, or be lawfully intitled to any ſuch Quantity of Glaſs from the ſaid 'Perſon or Perſons who actually paid his Majeſty's Duties for the ſame, to export ſuch Glaſs for any 'Foreign Parts, by Way of Merchandiſe, upon the Terms, and according to the Directions, and with 'ſuch Drawback and Allowance, as are therein expreſſed: And whereas Glaſs is often exported in ſuch 'Quantities according to the Demands of the Markets beyond the Seas, and the Manner hereby preſcribed 'for obtaining ſuch Drawback and Allowance is attended with Difficulty to the Exporters; for the En-'couragement therefore of the Glaſs Manufacturers and Exporters of Glaſs in Great Britain,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons, who have actually paid or been charged with his Majeſty's Duties by this preſent Act, or by the ſaid recited Act reſpectively, payable for any Quantity of Glaſs whatſoever, made from any of the Materials thereby reſpectively charged, and to and for any other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall buy, or be lawfully intitled to any ſuch Quantity of Glaſs, from the ſaid Perſon or Perſons who actually paid his Majeſty's Duties for the ſame, to export ſuch Glaſs for any Foreign Parts, by Way of Merchandiſe, in any Seaport, or upon any navigable River near to which ſuch Glaſs-houſe ſhall be ſituated, within any of the uſual and allowed Ports by Law eſtabliſhed, for and upon Account of himſelf or any other, in the Preſence of an Officer of Exciſe, to be appointed by the reſpective Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Great Britain, upon twelve Hours Notice thereof being given to the ſaid Officer of Exciſe within the Limits whereof the ſaid Glaſs ſhall be exported (who is hereby impowered and required to ſee the ſaid Glaſs weighed); and Proof being made upon Oath, or by Affirmation, in caſe the Perſon be a known Quaker, by the Clerk or Chief Manager of the reſpective Glaſs-houſe where ſuch Glaſs was made, that the Duty of ſuch Glaſs hath been reſpectively paid or charged according to the Directions of this preſent or the ſaid recited Act, expreſſing the Quantity and Weight of ſuch Glaſs; and alſo like Oath or Affirmation by ſuch Clerk or Chief Manager, or of one or more Perſon or Perſons having Knowledge of the Packing and intended Exportation thereof, expreſſing the Quality and Weight of ſuch Glaſs, and that no broken nor Waſte Glaſs hath been packed with, nor is included in, any Box, Crate, or other Package containing the ſaid Glaſs, and that the ſame Glaſs is to be really and truly exported beyond the Seas as Merchandiſe; and thereupon the Collector for the ſaid Duties upon Glaſs, or ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be deputed by the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners of Exciſe to act in his Abſence, ſhall give to ſuch Perſon or Perſons gratis a Certificate or Certificates, expreſſing the Qualities and Weight of ſuch Glaſs, and that the Duties are paid, or charged for the ſame as aforeſaid; which Certificate being produced to the Officer of Exciſe at the Port where the ſaid Glaſs ſhall be exported, and Oath or Affirmation as aforeſaid being made by the Exporter, or his Clerk or Chief Manager, before the Officer of Exciſe of the ſaid Port (who is hereby authoriſed and required to adminiſter the ſame without any Fee or Charge) that the ſaid Glaſs ſo exported is the ſame mentioned and deſcribed in the ſaid Certificate, and ſufficient Security being given before the ſhipping thereof for Exportation, to be approved of by the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or the Perſon or Perſons to be reſpectively appointed by them for that Purpoſe, in Treble the Value of the Duty intended

Any Perſon who has paid the Duties granted by this Act, and the recited Act, for any Quantity of Glaſs, may export the ſame from any Seaport, &c. near the Glaſs-houſe, in the Preſence of an Officer of Exciſe: And on proving that the Duty hath been paid, &c.

the Collector ſhall give a Certificate; on producing whereof to the Officer of Exciſe at the Port of Exportation, &c. and on giving Security that the Whole of the ſaid Glaſs ſhall be exported, &c.

tended to be drawn back, that the particular Glaſs which ſhall be intended to be exported as aforeſaid, and every Part thereof, ſhall be ſhipped and exported, and that the ſame, or any Part thereof, ſhall not be relanded or brought again into any Part or Parts of Great Britain; which Security the Officer of Exciſe of the ſaid Port where ſuch Glaſs ſhall be exported is hereby directed and authoriſed to take, in his Majeſty's Name, and to his Uſe, inſtead of the Security directed by the ſaid recited Act to be taken by the Cuſtomer or Collector of the reſpective Port for ſuch Exportation; and then the ſaid Officer of Exciſe of the ſaid Port where ſuch Glaſs ſhall be exported ſhall give a Certificate under his Hand, expreſſing the Quality and true Weight of the Glaſs ſo exported, and that the ſame was ſhipped in his Preſence, and that ſufficient Security has been given for the due exporting thereof; which Certificate being produced to the Collector appointed to receive the ſaid Duties upon Glaſs, or ſuch Collector of the Port where the ſaid Glaſs was exported, he ſhall forthwith pay or allow to the Perſons or Agents ſo exporting the ſame a Drawback or Allowance of eighteen Shillings and eight-pence per hundred Weight for all Plate, Flint, Enamel, Stained, or Paſte Glaſs, and for all Phial Glaſs, made in Great Britain; and ſeven Shillings per hundred Weight for all Spread Window-glaſs made in Great Britain; and fourteen Shillings per hundred Weight for all other Window-glaſs (not being Spread Glaſs) whether flaſhed or otherwiſe manufactured, and commonly called or known by the Name of Crown Glaſs, made in Great Britain; and fourteen Shillings per hundred Weight for all Glaſs called German Sheet Glaſs, made in Great Britain; and three Shillings and Sixpence per hundred Weight for all Common Bottles, not being Phials, and for all other Veſſels or Utenſils made of Common Bottle Metal made in Great Britain; and after that Rate for a greater or leſſer Quantity: And if ſuch Collector ſhall not have Money in his Hands to pay the ſame, then the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Great Britain are required to pay the ſaid Certificate or Certificates out of the Duties upon Glaſs, ariſing by this or the ſaid recited Act.

a Drawback ſhall be paid.

'XXXVI. And whereas it frequently happens that the Collectors of the Duties, under the Manage-'ment of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, who are by Law required and impowered to adminiſter the 'Oath or Affirmation, and thereupon to give Certificates that ſuch Duties have been duly paid or ſecured, 'are frequently abſent from Home in the Execution of other Parts of their Duty, whereby the Export-'ation of ſuch Wares or Merchandiſe may be greatly delayed;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be appointed by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Great Britain reſpectively for the Time being, or the major Part of them, within their ſeveral Diſtricts, to adminiſter ſuch Oath or Affirmation, in the Abſence of the reſpective Collectors, to the Perſons ſo applying for the ſame, in order to export ſuch Wares and Merchandiſes as aforeſaid, and to give gratis to ſuch Perſons ſuch Certificate or Certificates as required by the ſeveral Acts whereby ſuch Duties are reſpectively charged upon ſuch Wares or Merchandiſes, in the ſame Manner as the Collectors of Exciſe are by Law required and impowered to do.

Commiſſioners of Exciſe to appoint Perſons to adminiſter Oaths in the Abſence of Collectors.

'XXXVII. And whereas Frauds have been committed by relanding or unſhipping of Glaſs, after be-'ing entered and ſhipped for Exportation, and alſo by entering broken Glaſs or waſte Glaſs for Export-'ation, in order to obtain the Drawback or Allowance for the ſame, as if it was Glaſs exported for Mer-'chandiſe, which was the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid recited Act; now the better to prevent 'ſuch Abuſes,' be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That if, after the ſhipping of any Glaſs to be exported purſuant to this preſent Act, in order to obtain the reſpective Allowances or Drawbacks therein mentioned, the Glaſs ſo ſhipped to be exported, or any Part thereof, ſhall be fraudulently unſhipped, unladed, relanded, or put into any other Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, over and above all other Penalties and Forfeitures, the Exporter or Exporters of ſuch Glaſs, and all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall be any ways concerned, or aiding or aſſiſting, in fraudulently unſhipping, unlading, relanding, or putting into any other Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, any Part of the ſaid Glaſs, in any Part of Great Britain, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall knowingly enter, or cauſe or ſuffer to be entered, any broken or waſte Glaſs for Exportation, with Intent that any Drawback or Allowance ſhould be obtained, ſhall, over and above all other Penalties and Forfeitures, for every ſuch Offence, alſo forfeit and loſe the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Penalty on fraudulently relanding, &c. Glaſs ſhipped for Exportation; or entering broken or waſte Glaſs.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon whatſoever, being a Maker of Glaſs, or who is or ſhall be any way intereſted in, or concerned in, the Trade or Buſineſs of making Glaſs, or in any Glaſs-houſe or Glaſs-houſes already or hereafter to be ſet up, ſhall, during ſuch Time as he ſhall be ſo concerned or intereſted in ſuch Glaſs Manufacture, Trade, Buſineſs, or Glaſs-houſe as aforeſaid, or in any of the ſaid Trades or Buſineſſes, be capable, or have any Power to act as a Juſtice of the Peace in any Matter or Thing whatſoever which ſhall any ways concern the Execution of the Powers or Authorities given or granted by this preſent Act, or any other Act of Parliament relating to the Duty or Duties impoſed upon Glaſs, or upon the Materials for making of Glaſs; and in caſe any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, preſume to execute any ſuch Powers or Authorities, it is hereby enacted and declared, That all and every ſuch Act ſo done by ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be null and void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

No Glaſs-maker, &c. to act as a Juſtice of Peace in any Matter relating to the Duties on Glaſs.

'XXXIX. And whereas there may have been Contracts or Bargains made for the Purchaſe and Sale of 'home-made Glaſs and Bottles, to be delivered and received at future Times after the ſaid fifth Day of 'July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven; which Contracts and Bargains, by Reaſon of the 'Duties on Glaſs and Glaſs Bottles hereby impoſed, cannot be complied with by the Sellers without great 'Loſs and Damage;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Contracts or Bargains made, or to be made, before the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, for the Purchaſe and Sale of home-made Glaſs or Glaſs Bottles, to be delivered and received at any future Time or Times, which ſhall not be performed and complied with on or before the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be, null and void, and

All Contracts for home-made Glaſs or Glaſs Bottles, which ſhall not be performed before July 5, 1777, to be void; and all Money advanced on Account of ſuch Contracts, to be repaid with Intereſt.

and of no Effect; and in caſe any Sum or Sums of Money ſhall have been advanced and paid by any Purchaſer or Purchaſers for or on account of any home-made Glaſs or Glaſs Bottles, which ſhall not be delivered on or before the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, all ſuch Sums of Money ſhall be forthwith repaid to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have advanced and paid the ſame, together with legal Intereſt for the ſame, from the Time and Times that ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſhall have been reſpectively advanced and paid.

Penalty on Perſons obſtructing Officers in the Execution of this Act.

XL. And it is hereby enacted, That if any Maker of Glaſs, or any other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall obſtruct or hinder any of the ſaid Officers in the Execution of any of the Powers given him or them by this Act for aſcertaining and ſecuring the ſaid Duties upon Glaſs, the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending therein ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

XLI. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act impoſed, ſhall be ſued for, levied, recovered, or mitigated, by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture is or may be recovered or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, by this Act, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and that one Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall diſcover, inform, or ſue for the ſame.

Act 29 Geo. II. for granting Duties on Silver Plate, repealed.

'XLII. And whereas it has been found by Experience, that the Rates and Duties ariſing by an Act, 'made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An 'Act for granting to his Majeſty ſeveral Rates and Duties, payable by all Perſons and Bodies Politic or Corporate 'having certain Quantities of Silver Plate, are very vexatious and troubleſome in the levying and collecting 'the ſame, and of ſmall Advantage to the Public;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, the ſeveral annual Rates and Duties charged by the ſaid recited Act ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or payable; and that then, and from thenceforth, all the Powers and Authorities given and granted, and the Rules and Regulations eſtabliſhed and preſcribed by the ſaid recited Act, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament for or in relation to the managing, ſecuring, aſcertaining, collecting, recovering, levying, and paying the ſaid Rates and Duties, and all Penalties and Forfeitures in reſpect thereof, ſhall alſo ceaſe, determine, and be no longer put in Execution; ſave only and except in all Caſes relating to the recovering any Arrears which may at that Time remain unpaid of the ſaid Rates and Duties, or to any Penalty or Forfeiture which ſhall have been incurred upon or at any Time before the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons ſued for executing this Act, may plead the general Iſſue, and recover treble Coſts.

XLIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, at any Time or Times, be ſued, moleſted, or proſecuted, for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, or of any Clauſe, Matter, or Thing herein contained, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may plead the general Iſſue, and give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if, upon the Trial, a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become nonſuited, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. XL.

Preamble.

Act 16 Geo. III. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the ſixteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty (intituled, 'An Act to prohibit all Trade and Intercourſe with the Colonies of New Hampſhire, Maſſachuſet's Bay, 'Rhode Iſland, Connecticut, New York, New Jerſey, Penſylvania, the three lower Counties on Delaware, 'Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, during the Continuance of the preſent 'Rebellion within the ſaid Colonies reſpectively; for repealing an Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign 'of his preſent Majeſty, to diſcontinue the landing and diſcharging, lading or ſhipping, of Goods, Wares, 'and Merchandiſe, at the Town and within the Harbour of Boſton, in the Province of Maſſachuſet's Bay; 'and alſo two Acts, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for reſtraining the Trade and Commerce of the Colo- 'nies in the ſaid Acts reſpectively mentioned; and to enable any Perſon or Perſons, appointed and authoriſed by his 'Majeſty to grant Pardons, to iſſue Proclamations, in the Caſes, and for the Purpoſes therein mentioned); it 'was (amongſt other Things) provided and enacted, That no Captures which ſhould be taken by virtue 'of the ſaid Act, ſhould be carried into any of the Colonies or Plantations in America, therein before par- 'ticularly mentioned, during and ſo long Time as ſuch Colonies or Plantations reſpectively ſhould con- 'tinue in a State of Rebellion: And whereas many ſuch Captures have been, ſince the paſſing of the ſaid 'Act, carried into the Port and Harbour of New York, and it may be expedient to allow that ſuch Cap- 'tures ſhould be carried into the ſaid Port and Harbour, or into any other Port, Harbour, or Place, in his 'Majeſty's Dominions aforeſaid, provided the ſame be done with the Conſent, Licence, and Warrant, of 'the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, appointed and authoriſed by his Majeſty to grant a Pardon or Pardons to any 'Number or Deſcription of Perſons;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Perſon or Perſons, appointed and authoriſed by his Majeſty to grant Pardons, as aforeſaid, and they, or either or any of them, are hereby impowered to grant his or their Licence or Warrant, authoriſing any Captor or Captors,

Any Perſon authoriſed by his Majeſty to grant Pardons, &c. may grant a Licence to carry Captures into any Port in America.

or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever in their Behalf, to carry any ſuch Captures into any Port, Harbour, or Place, in any of his Majeſty's Dominions aforeſaid; any Thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

II. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Captures which have been already carried into the ſaid Port and Harbour of New York, or which, before the firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, ſhall be carried in there, or into any of his Majeſty's Dominions, with ſuch Licence and Warrant as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed to have been lawfully carried into ſuch Port or Harbour; and after Condemnation as lawful Prize, the ſame ſhall and may, with the like Licence and Warrant, be exported from thence, and brought and imported into this Kingdom, or any other of his Majeſty's Dominions, upon Payment of the ſame Cuſtoms and Duties, and ſubject to the ſame Reſtrictions and Regulations in all other Reſpects, as the ſame now are ſubject to by the ſaid recited Act; any Thing therein to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

All Captures which have been carried into the Harbour of New York, or before Aug. 1, 1777, ſhall be carried into any of his Majeſty's Dominions, with Licence aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed to have been lawfully carried in, &c.

'III. And whereas, ſince the paſſing of the ſaid Act, ſeveral Ships and Veſſels, with their Cargoes, 'which had been taken by the Inhabitants of ſome of his Majeſty's rebellious Colonies or Plantations in 'America, and were afterwards retaken, have been condemned in the Courts of Admiralty or Vice-admi-'ralty in the Weſt Indies, and in America, and afterwards ſold in order to aſcertain one-eighth Part of the 'Value of ſuch Ships, Veſſels, and Cargoes, to which the Recaptors are intitled by virtue of the ſaid Act; 'by Means whereof the original Owners, and others intereſted therein, have been greatly damnified: For 'Remedy whereof,' be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, taken by virtue of the ſaid Act, or any Goods therein, ſhall appear and be proved, in any Courts of Admiralty or Vice-admiralty aforeſaid, to have belonged to any of his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions and Territories remaining and continuing in their Allegiance to the King, and under his Majeſty's Protection, and to have been taken or ſurprized by any of the Inhabitants of his Majeſty's rebellious Colonies or Plantations therein before mentioned, and to be in the Poſſeſſion or Power of ſuch unlawful Captor at the Time of ſuch retaking: then, and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Ships, Veſſels, Boats, and Goods, belonging to ſuch his Majeſty's Subjects remaining and continuing under his Protection and Obedience, as aforeſaid, ſhall in all Caſes be adjudged to be reſtored, and ſhall be, by Decree of the ſaid Vice-admiralty Court, accordingly reſtored to ſuch Owner or Owners, he or they paying one-eighth of the Value thereof to the Recaptors, or giving good and ſufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of the Recaptors, to pay one-eighth of the true Value of ſuch Ship and Goods ſo retaken, for and in lieu of Salvage: And for aſcertaining ſuch one-eighth Part, where it ſhall be judged neceſſary by the Owner or Owners of ſuch Veſſel or Boat, or the Goods therein ſo retaken as aforeſaid, to be removed into any other Port or Place in order to be ſold or diſpoſed of, the Judge of the Vice-admiralty Court, in which the ſaid Ship and Goods ſhall be decreed to be reſtored, ſhall forthwith cauſe the ſame to be appraiſed by Perſons to be named by the Claimant and Recaptors; or if they do not agree, to be appointed by the Court, and ſworn truly to appraiſe the ſame according to the beſt of their Skill and Knowledge; and that no Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, or Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes, laden therein, ſo retaken as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſold or diſpoſed of for the Purpoſe of paying any ſuch Salvage or eighth Part, or on any other Account whatſoever, unleſs by the Conſent of the Owners; except in Caſes where there ſhall be no Claim for ſuch retaken Ships, Veſſels, Boats, or Goods; in which Caſe, the Judge of the ſaid Vice-admiralty Court ſhall order as much of the Cargo, after having been appraiſed as aforeſaid, to be ſold, as will be ſufficient to pay the Recaptors the one-eighth of the Value of the Ship and Cargo, and the Expences of the Appraiſement and Sale; and if the Cargo be not ſufficient for that Purpoſe, then the Ship or Veſſel to be likewiſe ſold, and the Remainder, after paying the ſaid Salvage, to be depoſited in the Regiſtry of ſuch Vice-admiralty Court, for the Benefit of the Owners who ſhall thereafter apply for and claim the ſame; and except alſo in ſuch Caſes where any Part of the Cargo ſhall appear to be in a periſhing Condition; in which Caſe the ſaid Judge ſhall direct the Sale of ſuch periſhing Part, for the Benefit of the Perſons concerned therein.

Veſſels, &c. which had been taken from his Majeſty's Subjects not in Rebellion, and which ſhall be retaken, ſhall be reſtored to the Owners, on paying 1-8th Part of the Value thereof.

Veſſels, &c. to be appraiſed;

but not ſold without the Conſent of the Owners; except, &c.

CAP. XLI.

An Act to prevent the clandeſtine unſhipping from and receiving Goods at Sea on board Veſſels employed in the Eaſt India Company's Service; for aſcertaining the Manner of diſcharging Bonds given for the due Exportation of certain Goods from Great Britain to Foreign Parts; and to oblige the Maſters of Britiſh or Iriſh Ships, ſailing from any of his Majeſty's Dominions into the Baltick, to deliver a Manifeſto of their Cargoes to the Britiſh Conſul reſiding there.

Preamble,

'WHEREAS the Laws heretofore made to prevent the clandeſtine running of Goods from on board 'Ships employed in the Service of the Eaſt India Company on their homeward Voyages, and the 'receiving of Goods on board ſuch Ships at Sea on their outward Voyages from this Kingdom, are inſuffi-'cient to anſwer thoſe Purpoſes, it having been found by Experience that very large Quantities of Muſlins, 'Teas, and other Goods, are unſhipped from on board ſuch Ships into Veſſels that meet them at Sea on their 'Voyages homewards, which Goods are afterwards run on Shore on the Coaſts of this Kingdom without 'Payment of Duties; and alſo that large Quantities of Wine, Brandy, and other Goods, are clandeſtinely 'laden and put on board Ships employed in the ſaid Company's Service on their outward-bound Voyages 'at Sea, from Veſſels that wait hovering for them upon the Coaſt of this Kingdom, laden with ſuch 'Goods from foreign Parts; to the great Loſs of the public Revenue, the Detriment of the Eaſt India 'Company, and the Prejudice of the fair Traders: For Remedy whereof,' may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, if any Muſlin, Tea, or other Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſes whatſoever, ſhall be unſhipped at Sea, and taken out of any Ship or Veſſel employed in the Service of the ſaid Eaſt India Company, on her Voyage homewards to this Kingdom, at any Diſtance from the Coaſts thereof (unleſs in Caſe of apparent Neceſſity, or ſome other lawful Reaſon, of which the Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon having Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall give immediate Notice to, and make Proof of before, the Collector and Comptroller, or the Chief Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, at the firſt Port of this Kingdom where he ſhall arrive); all ſuch Muſlin, Tea, or other Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes, and every Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, into which the ſame ſhall be unſhipped and taken, or which ſhall be uſed in the removing, carrying, or conveying the ſame, ſhall be forfeited and loſt; and the Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon having Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel from which ſuch Goods ſhall be ſo unſhipped and taken, knowingly permitting or ſuffering ſuch Goods to be ſo unſhipped and taken out of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and every other Perſon who ſhall be aiding, aſſiſting, or otherwiſe concerned in the unſhipping or receiving of ſuch Goods, ſhall forfeit Treble the Value thereof.

Penalty on unſhipping Goods at Sea from any homeward-bound Veſſel employed by the Eaſt India Company, at any Diſtance from the Coaſts of this Kingdom (unleſs in caſe of Neceſſity, &c.);

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, if any Wine, Brandy, or other Goods whatſoever, ſhall be laden or put on board any Ship or Veſſel, employed in the Service of the ſaid Eaſt India Company, at Sea, at any Diſtance from the Coaſts of this Kingdom, after ſuch Ship or Veſſel hath been cleared outwards, and departed from the Port of London on her outward-bound Voyage (excepting ſuch Proviſions and Stores as ſhall be neceſſary for the Uſe and Suſtenance of the Perſons on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel during the Voyage), all ſuch Wine, Brandy, and other Goods, and every Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, out of and from which ſuch Wine, Brandy, or other Goods, ſhall be ſo unladen, ſhall be forfeited and loſt; and the Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon having the Charge of ſuch Eaſt India Ship, knowingly permitting or ſuffering any ſuch Goods to be ſo taken on board ſuch Ship, and every other Perſon who ſhall be aiding, aſſiſting, or otherwiſe concerned in the unſhipping or receiving of the ſaid Goods, ſhall forfeit Treble the Value thereof.

or on putting on board any ſuch Veſſel outward-bound, after ſhe has left the Port of London, any Wine, Brandy, &c. except for the Uſe of the Perſons on board during the Voyage.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures, as well ſpecific as pecuniary, by this Act impoſed, ſhall and may be ſued for, proſecuted, and recovered, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in the Name of his Majeſty's Attorney-general, or in the Name of ſome Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, by the ſame Rules, Methods, Ways, and Means, as other Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted for Offences againſt the Laws for ſecuring the Revenue of Cuſtoms are and may be ſued for, proſecuted, and recovered; and that one-third Part of all ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures ſhall be to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, one other third Part thereof to the Uſe of the ſaid United Company, and the remaining third Part thereof to the Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms who ſhall inform and proſecute for the ſame.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

'IV. ## CAP. XLIII.

An Act for repealing the eleventh Rule in the Book of Rates, ſo far as the ſame relates to making any Allowance upon the Importation of damaged Currants and Raiſins, and for making the Importer of ſuch Goods an Abatement in the Duties in lieu thereof; and for explaining the ſaid Rule with reſpect to ſuch Allowance for Damage on other Goods; and to permit the Exportation of Tobacco-pipe Clay from this Kingdom to the Britiſh Sugar Colonies or Plantations in the Weſt Indies, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

Act 12 Car. II. recited.

'WHEREAS by the eleventh Rule in the Book of Rates, annexed and referred to by an Act of 'Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Charles the Second '(intituled, A Subſidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon 'Merchandiſe exported and imported), which has been continued by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, 'and is now in Force, excepting ſuch Alterations as have been ſince made with reſpect to Wines and 'Tobacco, it is provided, That if any Tobacco, or other Goods or Merchandiſe, brought into this 'Kingdom, ſhall receive any Damage by Salt-water, or otherwiſe, ſo that the Owner thereof ſhall be 'prejudiced in the Sale of ſuch Goods, the principal Officers of the Cuſtom-houſe, or any two of them, 'whereof the Collector for the Time being to be one, ſhall have Power to chuſe two indifferent Mer'chants, experienced in the Value of ſuch Goods, who, upon viſiting the ſaid Goods, ſhall certify and 'declare, upon their corporal Oaths firſt adminiſtered by the ſaid Officers, what Damage ſuch Goods 'have received, and are leſſened in their true Value; and according to ſuch Damage, in relation to the 'Rates ſet on them in the ſaid Book of Rates, the ſaid Officers are to make a proportionable Abatement, 'unto the Merchant or Owner, of the Subſidy due for the ſame: And whereas frequent Diſputes do ariſe 'between the Officers of the Cuſtoms and the Merchants in adjuſting the Allowances which Currants and 'Raiſins may deſerve and be intitled to, it having been found by Experience extremely difficult to diſtin'guiſh what Damage ſuch Goods have received by unavoidable Accident in the Courſe of the Voyage, 'from the natural and conſequential Decay ſome of theſe Articles are particularly liable to from heating, 'if of an inferior Quality, or packed in bad Condition before they are ſhipped in foreign Parts, which 'has put the Merchants, trading in theſe Commodities at different Ports in this Kingdom, upon a very 'unequal Footing, and been very prejudicial to the public Revenue:' Now, for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, the ſaid eleventh Rule, annexed to the ſaid Book of Rates, ſo far as the ſame relates to Currants and Raiſins, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed, made void, and ſhall no longer be put in Practice; any Thing in the ſaid Act of Tonnage and Poundage, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

After June 24, 1777, the 11th Rule in the Book of Rates, ſo far as it relates to Currants and Raiſins, ſhall be repealed.

'II. And whereas it may be reaſonable to make the Merchants importing ſuch Goods a certain Com'penſation for the Allowance they would be intitled to out of the ſeveral Duties, in proportion to the 'different Damage ſuch Goods may be liable to, whereby the Revenue may be collected with greater Cer'tainty, and not ſo liable to Abuſe;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, it ſhall and may be lawful for the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms, at the ſeveral Ports in this Kingdom, to make the following Abatement or Deduction, from the net Amount of the Duties payable upon the Importation of the ſeveral Goods herein-after expreſſed, to the Merchant or Merchants importing the ſame; that is to ſay, For Currants, eight Pounds per Centum; for Raiſins Solis, one Pound per Centum; for Smyrna Raiſins, ſix Pounds per Centum; for Lipari, Faro, Belvidere, and Great or Lexia Raiſins, ten Pounds per Centum; and for Denia Raiſins, twenty Pounds per Centum; which ſaid ſeveral Abatements ſhall be deemed and taken to be in lieu of all former Allowances ſuch Goods were reſpectively intitled to in conſideration of any Damage whatſoever; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Certain Deductions to be made from the Duties payable on the Importation of Currants and Raiſins.

III. And

No Abatement to be made in the Duties on any other Goods, by virtue of the ſaid 11th Rule, unleſs the Importer ſhall prove they are damaged by ſome Accident, &c.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, no Abatement or Allowance ſhall be made in the Duties for any other Goods whatſoever, by virtue or in purſuance of the ſaid eleventh Rule in the Book of Rates herein-before recited, for or on account of any Damage ſuch Goods may have received, unleſs the Importer or Owner of ſuch Goods ſhall prove, to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms at London or Edinburgh reſpectively, or to the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms at the Out-ports of this Kingdom where ſuch Goods may be imported, that ſuch Goods are damaged, and are leſſened in their true Value, by means of ſome unavoidable Accident which happened to them during the Courſe of the Voyage, after ſuch Goods were ſhipped and laden in foreign Parts on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel importing the ſame, and before ſuch Goods were landed in this Kingdom; any Thing in the ſaid Rule, or any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

An Act of 13 and 14 Car. II. recited.

'IV. And whereas, by an Act of Parliament, made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign 'of King Charles the Second (intituled, An Act againſt exporting of Sheep, Wool, Wool-fells, Mortlings, 'Shortlings, Yarn made of Wool, Wool-flocks, Fullers-earth, Fulling-clay, and Tobacco-pipe Clay), and by 'ſeveral other Acts of Parliament which are now in Force, the Exportation of Tobacco-pipe Clay from 'this Kingdom into foreign Parts is prohibited: And whereas Tobacco-pipe Clay is abſolutely neceſſary 'and uſeful in the cleanſing and improving of Powdered Sugars, and is at this Time very much wanted 'for that Purpoſe in the Britiſh Sugar Colonies and Plantations in the Weſt Indies, and it is expedient to 'permit the Exportation thereof to the ſaid Colonies for a limited Time;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, and until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons to export, from any Port in this Kingdom, any Quantity of Tobacco-pipe Clay to any Britiſh Sugar Colony or Plantation in the Weſt Indies, in any Ship or Veſſel that may lawfully trade thither; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

From June 24, 1777, to June 24, 1779, Tobacco-pipe Clay may be exported to the Britiſh Sugar Colonies in the Weſt Indies.

CAP. XLIV.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be charged with any Offence or Offences againſt the ſaid recited Act of the twenty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, ſhall be liable to be convicted, unleſs before two or more Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where the Offence ſhall be committed; any Thing contained in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

No Perſon to be convicted, unleſs before two Juſtices, &c.

Recital of a Clauſe in the aforeſaid Act.

'III. And whereas, by the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, it was alſo enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhould buy, receive, accept, or take, by way of Gift, Pawn, Pledge, Sale, or Exchange, or in any other Manner whatſoever, of or from any Perſon or Perſons hired or employed to make any Felt or Hat, or to prepare or work up the Woollen, Linen, Fuſtian, Cotton, Iron, Leather, Fur, Hemp, Flax, Mohair, or Silk Manufactures, or any Manufactures made up of Wool, Fur, Hemp, Flax, Cotton, Mohair, or Silk, or of any of the ſaid Materials mixed one with another, any Thrumbs or Ends of Yarn, or any other Materials of Wool, Fur, Hemp, Flax, Cotton, or Iron, or any Leather, Mohair, or Silk, whether the ſame, or any Part thereof, be or be not firſt wrought, made up, or manufactured, knowing the Perſon or Perſons, of whom he, ſhe, or they, ſo buy, receive, accept, or take, the ſaid Materials, to be ſo hired or employed as aforeſaid, and not having firſt obtained the Conſent of the Perſon or Perſons ſo hiring or employing him,

'her, or them, who ſhould offer to ſell, pawn, pledge, exchange, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of, the ſaid Materials; or ſhould buy, receive, accept, or take, in any Manner whatſoever, of or from any other Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, any of the ſaid Materials, whether the ſame be or be not firſt wrought, made up, or manufactured, knowing the ſame to be ſo purloined or embezzled; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Perſon or Perſons ſo buying, receiving, accepting, or taking, any ſuch Materials, being thereof lawfully convicted, in Manner before preſcribed by the ſaid Act, for the Conviction of Perſons purloining or embezzling the ſaid Materials, ſhould, for the firſt Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; and in caſe the ſaid Forfeiture ſhould not be immediately paid, the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhould be had, ſhould commit the Party or Parties ſo convicted to the Houſe of Correction, or other public Priſon as aforeſaid, there to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of fourteen Days, unleſs the ſaid Forfeiture ſhould be ſooner paid; and if within two Days before the Expiration of the ſaid fourteen Days the ſaid Forfeiture ſhould not be paid, the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices is and are thereby impowered and required to order the Perſon or Perſons ſo convicted to be publicly whipped at the Market-place, or ſome other public Place, of the City, Town, or Place, where ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhould be reſpectively committed, once, or oftener, as to ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhould appear reaſonable; and in caſe of a further Conviction for or upon a ſecond or any other ſubſequent Offence of the ſame Kind, the Perſon or Perſons ſo again offending, being thereof convicted in Manner before preſcribed by the ſaid Act, ſhould, for every ſecond or other ſubſequent Offence, forfeit the Sum of forty Pounds; and in caſe the ſaid Forfeiture ſhould not be immediately paid, the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhould be had, ſhould commit the Party or Parties ſo convicted to the Houſe of Correction, or other public Priſon as aforeſaid, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding three Months, nor leſs than one Month, unleſs the ſaid Forfeiture ſhould be ſooner paid; and if within ſeven Days before the Expiration of the Time for which ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhould be ſo committed, the ſaid Forfeiture ſhould not be paid, the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices is and are thereby impowered and required to order ſuch Offender or Offenders to be publicly whipped at the Market-place, or ſome other public Place, of the City, Town, or Place, where he, ſhe, or they ſhould be reſpectively committed, twice, or oftener, as to ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhould appear reaſonable: And the ſaid reſpective Forfeitures of twenty Pounds and forty Pounds, when recovered, after Satisfaction ſhould have been made thereout to the Party or Parties injured, together with ſuch Coſts of Proſecution as ſhould be judged reaſonable by the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhould have been had, ſhould be equally diſtributed amongſt the Poor of the Pariſh or Place where the Perſon or Perſons ſo convicted ſhould reſide or inhabit: And whereas it is thought neceſſary to increaſe the pecuniary Penalties directed by the ſaid recited Act for the ſaid Offences laſt mentioned, and to vary the Application of the ſaid Penalties for the ſame, and further to change the Conſequences of Nonpayment;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, ſo much of the ſaid recited Act of the twenty-ſecond of his late Majeſty King George the Second, as enacts what the Penalty or Puniſhment ſhall be for ſuch buying, receiving, accepting, or taking, by way of Gift, Pawn, Pledge, Sale, or Exchange, or in any other Manner, as is deſcribed by the ſaid Act, in the Terms aforeſaid, and how ſuch Penalty ſhall be applied, and what Puniſhment ſhall be inflicted in caſe of Nonpayment, ſhall be repealed; and inſtead thereof, the Penalty for the firſt Offence ſhall be any Sum not more than forty Pounds, nor leſs than twenty Pounds, as the Juſtices before whom the Conviction ſhall be ſhall judge to be moſt proper; and every ſuch pecuniary Penalty ſhall be applied, under the Direction of the Juſtices before whom the Conviction ſhall be, in Manner following; (that is to ſay) In the firſt Place, the Expences of the Proſecution ſhall be thereout defrayed; and then ſuch Satisfaction ſhall be made thereout to the Party or Parties injured, as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall think proper; and afterwards ſo much of the ſaid Penalty ſhall be paid to the Informer or Informers as ſuch Juſtices ſhall think fit, not exceeding, in any Caſe, ten Pounds; and the Remainder, if any, ſhall be paid and diſtributed to and amongſt the Poor of the Pariſh, Town, or Place, where the Conviction ſhall be, or for the Uſe of ſuch public Charity or Charities as ſuch Juſtices ſhall appoint: And if ſuch pecuniary Penalty as aforeſaid ſhall not be paid on Conviction, the ſaid Juſtices ſhall commit the Perſon convicted to the Houſe of Correction, or other public Priſon, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not more than ſix Months, nor leſs than three Months, as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall think fit to direct, unleſs ſuch pecuniary Penalty ſhall be ſooner paid; or the ſaid Juſtices may ſend the Perſon convicted to the Houſe of Correction, or other public Priſon, there to remain for three Days, excluſive of the Day of Commitment, with an Order that within the ſaid Time the Perſon ſo convicted ſhall be once publicly whipped at ſuch Market-place, or other public Place as aforeſaid.

So much of the ſaid Act, as orders the Puniſhment for buying, receiving, &c. of any Goods in the laſt-recited Clauſe mentioned, repealed; and other Puniſhments ſubſtituted inſtead thereof.

How Juſtices to proceed when Offenders are brought before them for a Second Offence.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be brought before any Juſtices of the Peace, and ſhall be charged upon Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) upon ſolemn Affirmation, of having been guilty of buying, receiving, accepting, or taking, by Way of Gift, Pawn, Pledge, Sale, or Exchange, or in any other Manner, as is deſcribed by the ſaid recited Act, in the Terms aforeſaid, and it ſhall appear to ſuch Juſtices that the Perſon or Perſons ſo charged hath or have been already convicted of the like Offence for which he, ſhe, or they is or are then charged, that then ſuch Juſtices ſhall not proceed to convict ſuch Perſon or Perſons, but ſhall commit him, her, or them, to the Houſe of Correction, or ſome other public Priſon, there to remain until the next General or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held in and for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place where the Offence ſhall have been committed, or until ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall have entered into a Recognizance to anſwer for ſuch Offence at the ſaid next General or General Quarter Seſſions; and the Juſtices in ſuch General or General Quarter Seſſions are hereby authoriſed and required to take Cognizance thereof, and to hear and determine the ſame; and if ſuch Perſon ſhall be convicted upon the Oath, or Any ſuch Offender convicted before the (being of the People called Quakers) upon the Affirmation of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, the Perſon ſo convicted ſhall forfeit and pay, for ſuch Offence, any Sum not more than one hundred Pounds, nor leſs than fifty Pounds, as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall judge to be moſt proper; and every ſuch Penalty ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of, under the Direction of the ſaid Juſtices in their General or General Quarter Seſſions, in ſuch Manner and Proportions as the Penalty herein-before impoſed for the firſt Offence of the like Nature is by this Act directed to be applied and diſpoſed of; and if ſuch Penalty ſhall not be paid on Conviction, the ſaid Juſtices ſhall commit the Perſon ſo convicted to the Houſe of Correction, or other public Priſon, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not more than ſix Months, nor leſs than three Months, as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall in their Diſcretion think fit, unleſs ſuch Penalty ſhall be ſooner paid; or the ſaid Juſtices may ſend the Perſon convicted to the Houſe of Correction, or other public Priſon, there to remain for three Days, excluſive of the Day of Commitment, with an Order that within the ſaid Time ſuch Perſon ſhall be once publicly whipped at ſuch Market-place, or other public Place as aforeſaid.

Quarter Seſſions, ſhall forfeit from 50l. to 100l.;

or be committed, &c.

'V. And whereas many Frauds are practiſed, in reſpect to ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, by Perſons who 'ſell them knowing them to have been purloined or embezzled;' be it therefore further enacted, That, after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, if any Perſon ſhall ſell, pawn, pledge, exchange, or otherwiſe unlawfully diſpoſe of, or offer to ſell, pawn, pledge, exchange, or otherwiſe unlawfully diſpoſe of, any ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, whether wrought or unwrought, mixed or unmixed, knowing them to have been purloined or embezzled, every ſuch Perſon, lawfully convicted, ſhall be liable to the ſame Puniſhment as he or ſhe would be liable to by virtue of this Act, on being convicted of receiving purloined or embezzled Materials, knowing them to have been purloined or embezzled.

Perſons ſelling, pawning, &c. any ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, knowing them to have been embezzled, ſhall be liable to the ſame Puniſhment as for receiving embezzled Materials.

'VI. And whereas ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, which have been purloined or embezzled, are frequently 'received by Perſons knowing the ſame to have been ſo purloined or embezzled; and ſuch Materials 'being afterwards worked up, or otherwiſe diſpoſed of, renders it difficult to convict ſuch Offenders;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, when any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be brought or charged upon Oath, before any two or more Juſtices of the Peace, by virtue of this Act, with being ſuſpected of, or with having purloined or embezzled, or with having received any ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, whether the ſame be wrought or unwrought, mixed or unmixed, knowing the ſame to have been either purloined or embezzled, or received from ſome Perſon or Perſons not intitled to diſpoſe thereof, and it ſhall be made appear upon the Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) upon the Affirmation, of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtices, that ſuch Perſon or Perſons hath or have purloined or embezzled, or hath or have received any ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, knowing the ſame to have been purloined or embezzled, or received from ſome Perſon or Perſons not intitled to diſpoſe thereof, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Juſtices, or for the Juſtices at their General or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, and they are hereby reſpectively authoriſed and impowered (if they ſhall think fit) to convict ſuch Perſon or Perſons of having purloined or embezzled, or of having received ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, knowing the ſame to have been purloined or embezzled, or received from ſome Perſon or Perſons not intitled to diſpoſe thereof, although no Proof ſhall be given to whom ſuch Materials belong; and the Perſon or Perſons ſo convicted ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, be ſubject to ſuch and the like Penalties and Puniſhments, at the Diſcretion of ſuch Juſtices reſpectively, as Perſons convicted of buying or receiving any ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, knowing the ſame to have been purloined or embezzled, are by this Act ſubject and liable to.

How Juſtices to proceed in relation to Perſons charged on Oath with being ſuſpected of having embezzled ſuch Materials, or of having received the ſame knowing them to have been embezzled, &c.

'VII. And whereas, by the ſaid recited Act of the twenty-ſecond of King George the Second, it was 'alſo enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons intruſted with any of the Materials therein and herein-before 'mentioned, in order to prepare, work up, or manufacture the ſame, ſhould not uſe all ſuch Materials in 'the preparing, working up, or manufacturing, of the ſame, and ſhould neglect or delay, for the Space of 'twenty-one Days after ſuch Materials ſhould be prepared, worked up, or manufactured, to return (if re-'quired by the Owner or Owners of ſuch Materials ſo to do) ſo much of the ſaid Materials as ſhould not 'be uſed as aforeſaid, to the Perſon or Perſons intruſting him, her, or them therewith, ſuch Neglect or 'Delay ſhould be deemed a purloining or embezzling of ſuch Materials; and the Perſon or Perſons ſo ne-'glecting or delaying, being thereof convicted in Manner therein-before preſcribed for the Conviction of 'Offenders againſt the ſaid Act, ſhould ſuffer the like Puniſhment as Perſons convicted of purloining or 'embezzling any of the Materials therein-before mentioned, are by the ſaid Act rendered ſubject and liable 'to: And whereas the Space of twenty-one Days, allowed by the ſaid recited Act, is thought too long a 'Time to be allowed for returning the ſaid Materials, under the Circumſtances, and in Manner aforeſaid; 'and it may be proper to make the Puniſhment for not returning ſuch Materials the ſame as for purloining 'or embezzling under this Act;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, ſo much of the ſaid recited Act as allows twenty-one Days after the preparing, working up, or manufacturing the ſaid Materials, for returning ſo much of the ſaid Materials as ſhall not be uſed in ſuch preparing, working up, or manufacturing, and declares that the Puniſhment for not ſo returning the ſaid Materials within the ſaid Time, ſhall be the ſame as under the ſaid Act is directed for purloining or embezzling, ſhall be repealed; and only eight Days ſhall be allowed for returning the ſaid Materials in Manner aforeſaid; and the Puniſhment for not returning them within the ſaid eight Days ſhall be the ſame as is by this Act directed to be inflicted for purloining or embezzling.

Another Clauſe of the Act 22 Geo. II. recited, and altered.

'VIII. And whereas, by the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King 'George the Second, it is enacted, That, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thou-'ſand ſeven hundred and forty-nine, if any Perſon who ſhould be hired, retained, or employed, to prepare 'or work up any of the Manufactures therein-before mentioned, for any one Maſter, ſhould neglect or 'refuſe the Performance thereof, by procuring or permitting himſelf or herſelf to be ſubſequently retained

Another Clauſe of the ſaid Act recited,

'or employed by any other Maſter or Perſon whatſoever, before he or ſhe ſhould have completed the Work 'which he or ſhe was firſt and originally ſo hired, retained, or employed to perform, and which was firſt 'delivered to him or her; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Perſon ſo offending, being thereof lawfully 'convicted by the Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) Affirmation, of one or more credible 'Witneſs or Witneſſes, before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where the Offence or Offences ſhould be committed, ſhould be 'ſent to the Houſe of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding one Month: 'And whereas the ſaid Proviſion contained in the ſaid recited Clauſe is not found ſufficient for the Purpoſe 'intended, and it is apprehended that ſome other Proviſion, more proper, may be made;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, the whole of the ſaid laſt-recited Clauſe ſhall be repealed; and that, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, if any Perſon, being hired, retained, or employed, to prepare or work up any Materials, whether mixed or unmixed, for any Maſter or Maſters, ſhall wilfully neglect or refuſe the Performance thereof for eight Days ſucceſſively; or having taken in any Materials, whether mixed or unmixed, for Manufacture, from one Maſter, or two or more Maſters being Co-partners, ſhall afterwards take in any Materials, whether mixed or unmixed, for Manufacture, from any other Maſter or Maſters; or ſhall procure, or permit himſelf or herſelf to be employed or retained in any other Occupation or Employment whatſoever, ſooner than eight Days before the Completion of the Work firſt taken; then, in every ſuch Caſe, ſuch Perſon being thereof lawfully convicted by the Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) Affirmation, of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where the Offence or Offences ſhall be committed, ſhall be ſent to the Houſe of Correction, or other public Priſon, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding three Months, nor leſs than one Month.

Any Perſon being employed to work up Materials, who ſhall neglect to perform the ſame for eight Days, &c. ſhall be ſent to the Houſe of Correction.

'IX. And whereas it frequently happens that Perſons receive the ſaid Materials in fictitious Names, in 'order to be manufactured; and that Perſons receive ſuch Materials in their own Names, in order to be 'manufactured by themſelves, and afterwards deliver the ſame to others to be manufactured, without the 'Knowledge or Conſent of the Owners thereof; and that Carriers, or other Perſons employed to deliver 'Materials to Workmen to be prepared or manufactured, do deſignedly deliver ſuch Materials to other 'Perſons than thoſe intended by the Owner of ſuch Materials;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, if any Perſon ſhall receive any of the aforeſaid Materials in a fictitious Name, in order to be manufactured; or if any Perſon ſhall receive in his or her own Name any of the ſaid Materials, in order to be manufactured by himſelf or herſelf, and afterwards deliver the ſame, or any Part thereof, to any other Perſon to be manufactured (without the Conſent of the Owner thereof); or if any Carrier, or other Perſon employed to deliver any ſuch Materials to any Workman, to be prepared or wrought up, ſhall deſignedly deliver the ſame to any other Perſon than the Perſon to whom ſuch Materials were ordered or intended to be delivered by the Owner thereof; all and every Perſon and Perſons offending in any of the Caſes aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, be liable to Proſecution, in the ſame Manner, and to the ſame Puniſhment, as is by this Act directed in reſpect to Perſons taking in any of the ſaid Materials in order to work up, and afterwards wilfully neglecting or refuſing the Performance of their Work for the Space of Time aforeſaid.

If any Perſon ſhall receive any Materials to be manufactured, in a fictitious Name; or ſhall deliver the ſame to any other Perſon, without the Conſent of the Owner, &c. he ſhall be liable to the ſame Puniſhment as Perſons neglecting to perform their Work, &c.

Preamble.

'X. And whereas it frequently happens that Materials uſed in the Manufactures before mentioned, are 'found, or known to be concealed in the Poſſeſſion of Perſons who have received the ſame, knowing them 'to be purloined or embezzled, or of Perſons known not to be entitled to diſpoſe of the ſame; and whereas 'the Diſcovery and Conviction of the Purloiners and Embezzlers, Buyers and Receivers, of ſuch Materials, is full of Difficulty, from the cloſe and clandeſtine Manner in which the Offence is committed; 'and there is ſtill greater Difficulty in proving whoſe Property ſuch Materials are; and it would tend to the 'Diſcouragement and Suppreſſion of ſuch Offences, if the Diſcovery and Conviction of ſuch Offenders 'were rendered more eaſy: And whereas, by the ſaid recited Act of the twenty-ſecond Year of his late 'Majeſty King George the Second, Juſtices of the Peace, after Conviction of any Offender for purloining 'or embezzling the ſaid Materials, or for buying or receiving the ſame, are authoriſed to grant Warrants 'for ſearching the Houſes and other Places of the Perſons ſo convicted, but no ſuch Authority is given 'before Conviction, nor in any other Houſe or Place, except ſuch as belongs to a Perſon convicted;' be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any two Juſtices of the Peace of any County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, upon Complaint made to them, upon Oath, by any one credible Perſon, or (being of the People called Quakers) upon ſolemn Affirmation, that there is Cauſe to ſuſpect that any ſuch purloined or embezzled Materials, whether mixed or unmixed, wrought or unwrought, are concealed in any Dwelling-houſe, Out-houſe, Yard, Garden, or other Place or Places, by virtue of a Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe every ſuch Dwelling-houſe, Out-houſe, Yard, Garden, or Place, to be ſearched in the Day-time: And if any ſuch Materials, ſuſpected to be purloined or embezzled, ſhall be found therein, to cauſe the ſame, and the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Houſe, Out-houſe, Yard, Garden, or other Place, the ſame ſhall be found, to be brought before any two Juſtices of the Peace for the ſame County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place; and if the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſhall not give an Account, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtices, how he, ſhe, or they came by the ſame, then the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, ſhall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Miſdemeanor, and ſhall be puniſhed in Manner herein-after mentioned, although no Proof ſhall be given to whom ſuch Materials belong.

Juſtices, on receiving Complaint on Oath, that embezzled Materials are ſuſpected to be concealed in any Houſe, &c. may grant a Warrant for ſearching the ſame.

How Perſons ſhall be puniſhed, in whoſe Poſſeſſion ſuch Materials ſhall be found.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Peace-officer, Conſtable, Headborough, or Tythingman, in every County, City, Town Corporate, or other Place, where there ſhall be Officers, and every Beadle within his Ward, Pariſh, or Diſtrict, and every Watchman, during ſuch Time only as he is on his Duty,

Peace Officers in Towns Corporate, &c. may apprehend all ſhall and may apprehend, or cauſe to be apprehended, all and every Perſon or Perſons who may reaſonably be ſuſpected of having or carrying, or any ways conveying, at any Time after Sun-ſetting and before Sun-riſing, any of ſuch Materials ſuſpected to be purloined or embezzled, and the ſame, together with ſuch Perſon or Perſons, as ſoon as conveniently may be, convey or carry before any two Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, within which the ſuſpected Perſon or Perſons ſhall be apprehended; and if the Perſon or Perſons ſo apprehended in conveying any ſuch Materials, ſhall not produce the Party or Parties duly intitled to diſpoſe thereof, from whom he, ſhe, or they bought or received the ſame, or ſome other credible Witneſs, to teſtify upon Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) upon ſolemn Affirmation, to the Sale or Delivery of the ſaid Materials (which Oath or Affirmation reſpectively ſuch Juſtices are hereby impowered to adminiſter), or ſhall not give an Account, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtices, how he, ſhe, or they came by the ſame; then the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſo apprehended ſhall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Miſdemeanor, and be puniſhed in Manner herein-after mentioned, although no Proof ſhall be given to whom ſuch Materials belong.

Perſons ſuſpected of having or carrying after Sun-ſet, any Materials ſuſpected to be purloined, &c.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in either of the two Caſes laſt before mentioned, when any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be brought before any two Juſtices of the Peace, ſhall requeſt of ſuch Juſtices to appoint a reaſonable Time to produce the Perſon or Perſons duly intitled to ſell or diſpoſe of the ſame, of or from whom he, ſhe, or they bought or received the ſame, or ſome one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes to prove the Sale or Delivery thereof; then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices, and they are hereby authoriſed and required to appoint ſuch reaſonable Time as aforeſaid, and to iſſue out a Summons to the Conſtable or other Peace Officer of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or ſuch Witneſs or Witneſſes, ſhall reſpectively reſide, requiring him, her, or them, to appear before two or more Juſtices, at ſuch Time and Place as ſhall be ſo appointed by ſuch Juſtices, in order to be examined and give Evidence on Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) ſolemn Affirmation, of the ſeveral Matters aforeſaid; but ſuch Perſon or Perſons, at the Time of making ſuch Requeſt, ſhall enter into a Recognizance, with or without Surety or Sureties, as ſuch Juſtices ſhall think proper, for his, her, or their Appearance before them, at the Time ſo to be ſet, or, for want of ſuch Recognizance as aforeſaid, ſhall be committed until the Time that ſhall be ſet or appointed by the ſaid Juſtices for the Appearance of ſuch Party or Parties, Witneſs or Witneſſes; and if at ſuch appointed Time ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be convicted of any of the Offences aforeſaid, then, and in ſuch Caſe, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall ſuffer ſuch Puniſhment as is herein-before directed to be inflicted on Perſons guilty of ſuch Offences.

Juſtices may, at the Requeſt of Perſons brought before them, appoint a reaſonable Time to produce the Perſons intitled to diſpoſe of the Materials, &c.

On the Perſons making ſuch Requeſt, entering into a Recognizance, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be convicted of a Miſdemeanor in either of the two Caſes laſt before mentioned, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices before whom the Conviction ſhall be, to cauſe the ſaid Materials ſo found or ſeized as aforeſaid, to be depoſited in the Hands of the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the Place where ſuch Materials ſhall be found or ſeized, or in any other convenient Place, for any Time not exceeding thirty Days; and in the mean time to order the ſaid Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor, or one of them, to inſert an Advertiſement in ſome one or more of the public Newſpapers uſually publiſhed or circulated in or near ſuch Place, or otherwiſe to cauſe Notice to be given by ſome public Crier, and by fixing on the Church or Chapel Door Notice deſcribing ſuch Materials, and where the ſame are ſo depoſited, to the End that Perſons having loſt ſuch Materials, or any reputable Perſon or Perſons in their Behalf, may come and claim the ſame: And in caſe any Perſon or Perſons can prove his, her, or their Property in the ſaid Materials upon Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) upon his, her, or their ſolemn Affirmation, to the Satisfaction of any two Juſtices of the Peace for ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, then ſuch Juſtices ſhall order Reſtitution of ſuch Materials to the Owner or Owners thereof, after paying the reaſonable Charges of removing, depoſiting, and giving public Notice of the ſame; but if, before the End of the ſaid thirty Days, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall come and prove his, her, or their Property in ſuch Materials, nor any reputable Perſon or Perſons on his, her, or their Behalf, then the ſaid Juſtices ſhall order and direct the ſame to be ſold for the beſt Price that can reaſonably be had, and after deducting ſuch Charges as aforeſaid, together with the Charges of Sale, one Moiety of the Money ariſing from ſuch Sale ſhall be given to the Perſon or Perſons, or either of them, who ſhall apprehend or proſecute the Offender or Offenders guilty of either of the Miſdemeanors aforeſaid, as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall appoint; and the other Moiety thereof, either to and amongſt the Poor of the Pariſh, Town, or Place, where the Conviction ſhall be, or to ſuch public Charity or Charities as the Juſtices convicting ſhall appoint.

On any Perſon being convicted of a Miſdemeanor, as aforeſaid, the Materials ſo found ſhall be depoſited in the Hands of the Churchwardens, &c.

If any Perſon can prove his Property in the ſaid Materials, they ſhall be delivered to him, on paying the Charges of removing, &c. But if no Perſon prove his Property in them, they ſhall be ſold, &c.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon deemed and adjudged guilty of a Miſdemeanor, in having in his or her Poſſeſſion any Materials ſuſpected to be purloined or embezzled, and not producing the Party or Parties being duly intitled to diſpoſe of the ſame, of whom he or ſhe bought or received the ſame, nor giving a ſatisfactory Account how he or ſhe came by the ſame; or of a Miſdemeanor in having, carrying, or conveying, of the ſaid Materials ſuſpected to be purloined or embezzled, and not producing the Party or Parties being duly intitled to diſpoſe of the ſame, of whom he or ſhe bought or received the ſame, nor any credible Witneſs to teſtify upon Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) upon ſolemn Affirmation, the Sale or Delivery thereof, nor giving a ſatisfactory Account how he or ſhe came by the ſame (as the Caſe ſhall be), ſhall, for every ſuch Miſdemeanor, forfeit, for the firſt Offence, the Sum of twenty Pounds; and for the ſecond Offence, the Sum of thirty Pounds; and for every ſubſequent Offence, the Sum of forty Pounds: All which ſaid reſpective Forfeitures ſhall and may be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every ſuch Offender (rendering to him or her the Overplus, after Charges of the ſaid Diſtreſs and Sale deducted), by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the Juſtices before whom ſuch Offender ſhall be deemed and adjudged guilty; of which Forfeiture, one Moiety ſhall be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to and amongſt the Poor of the Pariſh, Town, or Penalty on Perſons having in their Poſſeſſion Materials ſuſpected to be purloined, &c.

Forfeitures may be levied by Diſtreſs.

On Failure of Diſtreſs, Offender to be committed.

Place, where ſuch Conviction ſhall be, or to ſuch public Charity or Charities as the Juſtices convicting ſhall appoint; and if no ſufficient Diſtreſs ſhall be found whereon to levy the ſaid reſpective Forfeitures, then the ſaid Juſtices ſhall and may commit every ſuch Offender, ſo reſpectively deemed and adjudged guilty as aforeſaid, to the Common Gaol, or other Priſon, or Houſe of Correction, within his or their Juriſdiction, without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of one Month, for the firſt Offence; and for the ſecond Offence, for the Space of two Months; and for every ſubſequent Offence, for the Space of ſix Months.

Owners of Materials delivered to Journeymen, &c. to be worked up, may, at all ſeaſonable Hours, enter their Shops or Outhouſes, to inſpect their Materials. Penalty on Refuſal of Entrance, &c.

'XV. And whereas it ſometimes happens, by Occaſion of the very long Detention of ſuch Materials 'as aforeſaid, delivered out to Journeymen or other Perſons employed to work up the ſame, it cannot be 'known to the Maſter or Owners of ſuch Materials, whether the ſame may have been purloined or em- 'bezzled, or whether the ſaid Materials are wholly or in Part wrought or begun to be wrought, or in 'what State or Condition ſuch Materials may be: For Remedy whereof,' be it further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, it ſhall be lawful for the Owner or Owners of any ſuch Materials, from Time to Time, as Occaſion ſhall require, to demand Entrance, and enter, at all ſeaſonable Hours in the Day-time, into the Shops or Outhouſes of any Perſon or Perſons employed by him or them to work up any of the ſaid Materials, or other Place or Places where the Work ſhall be carried on, and there to inſpect the State and Condition of ſuch Materials; and in caſe of Refuſal, by any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo employed, to permit ſuch Entrance or Inſpection, he, ſhe, or they ſo refuſing, ſhall forfeit and pay ſuch Sum of Money, not exceeding forty Shillings, nor leſs than ten Shillings, as the Juſtices, before whom he, ſhe, or they ſhall be convicted, ſhall think proper, to be recovered and applied in the ſame Manner as is by this Act directed for the Miſdemeanor of being in the Poſſeſſion of any ſuch Materials, without being able to account ſatisfactorily for ſuch Poſſeſſion.

All Penalties in the Act 22 Geo. II. and in this Act, relating to the ſaid Materials, ſhall be applicable to the Tools, &c. with which any Perſon is entruſted for manufacturing the ſame.

'XVI. And whereas the ſaid recited Act, of the twenty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty 'King George the Second, contains no Proviſion for the Protection and Recovery of the Tools and Im- 'plements with which any Perſon or Perſons employed in preparing, working up, or manufacturing, 'ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, ſhall be entruſted for that Purpoſe; nor any Proviſion in reſpect to the Drugs 'and Ingredients uſed in dying, preparing, or manufacturing, ſuch of the ſaid Materials as are uſually 'dyed, prepared, or manufactured;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, every Penalty or Puniſhment directed by, or other Proviſion contained in, the ſaid recited Act, in reſpect to the ſaid Materials, ſo far as the ſaid recited Act is not varied by this Act, and all the Proviſions in this Act contained in reſpect to the ſaid Materials, ſhall extend and be applicable to any Tool or Tools, and Implement or Implements, with which any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be entruſted for making, working up, or manufacturing, the ſaid Materials, and alſo to any Drug or Drugs, Ingredient or Ingredients, with which any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be entruſted, for the Purpoſe of dying, preparing, or manufacturing, ſuch of the aforeſaid Materials as are uſually dyed, prepared, or manufactured, in the ſame Manner as if the ſaid Tools and Implements, Drugs and Ingredients, were particularly mentioned, both in the ſaid recited Act and in the preceding Proviſions of this Act.

If any Journeyman Dyer, &c. ſhall, without the Conſent of his Employer, dye any Woollen, Linen, &c.

'XVII. And whereas Journeymen Dyers, Servants, and Apprentices, frequently abuſe the Truſt re- 'poſed in them, by dying Goods for their own Profit, without the Conſent of their Maſters;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, if any Perſon hired, retained, or employed as a Journeyman Dyer, or as a Servant or Apprentice, in the dying of any Felt or Hat, or any Woollen, Linen, Fuſtian, Cotton, Leather, Fur, Flax, Mohair, or Silk Materials, whether the ſame ſhall be wrought or unwrought, or ſhall be mixed or unmixed with other of the ſaid Materials, ſhall, without the Conſent of the Maſter, Perſon or Perſons by whom ſuch Journeyman, Servant, or Apprentice, ſhall be hired, retained, or employed, wilfully dye any of the ſaid Materials, whether wrought or unwrought, or mixed or unmixed with other of the ſaid Materials, or without ſuch Conſent ſhall wilfully receive any ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, for the Purpoſe of dying the ſame, whether the ſame ſhall be dyed or prepared for dying, he or ſhe ſo guilty of either of the ſaid Offences ſhall, for the firſt Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings; and for the ſecond Offence, the Sum of twenty Shillings; and for every ſubſequent Offence, the Sum of forty Shillings; or if any Perſon ſhall procure any ſuch Materials as aforeſaid, to be dyed by any Perſon ſo hired, retained, or employed as a Journeyman, Servant, or Apprentice, without the Conſent of his or her Maſter or Employer, or ſhall offer any ſuch Materials to any ſuch Journeyman, Servant, or Apprentice, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, he or ſhe ſo offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, by the Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) Affirmation, of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before two or more Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where the Offence ſhall be committed, ſhall, for the firſt Offence, forfeit the Sum of five Shillings; and for the ſecond Offence, the Sum of twenty Shillings; and for every ſubſequent Offence, the Sum of four Pounds; and each of the ſaid Penalties ſhall be paid to the Informer or Informers; and in caſe of Non-payment on Conviction, the Perſon ſo convicted ſhall be committed, by the Juſtices before whom the Conviction ſhall be, to the common Gaol or Houſe of Correction, to remain for any Time not exceeding one Month, as ſuch Juſtices ſhall order and direct.

He ſhall forfeit, for the firſt Offence, 10s. &c.; or if any Perſon ſhall procure any ſuch Materials to be ſo dyed,

He ſhall forfeit, for the firſt Offence, 5s. &c.

Inhabitants of any Pariſh wherein any of the aforeſaid Offences ſhall be committed, to be deemed competent Witneſſes.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Inhabitant of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, in which any Offence ſhall be committed contrary to the Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, or contrary to the Act of the twenty-ſecond Year of his late Majeſty King George the Second, or contrary to this Act, ſhall be deemed a competent Witneſs, notwithſtanding his or her being an Inhabitant of ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any one Juſtice of the Peace of any County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, and he is hereby required, upon Complaint to him made upon Oath, or (if the Perſon complaining be of the People called Quakers) ſolemn Affirmation, of any Offence committed againſt this Act, within the ſame County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, to iſſue his Warrant for apprehending, and bringing before any two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, the Perſon or Perſons charged with ſuch Offence; and the Juſtices before whom ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be brought, are hereby authoriſed and required to hear and determine the Matter of ſuch Complaint, and to proceed to Judgment and Conviction thereupon.

Juſtice of Peace, on Complaint to him made upon Oath of any Offence againſt this Act, may iſſue his Warrant for apprehending the Offender.

'XX. ## CAP. LIX.

An Act to repeal an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, The Maſter of the Rolls impowered to make Leaſes for Years, in order to new-build the old Houſes belonging to the Rolls; and for the better regulating the Method of granting Leaſes of the ſaid Rolls Eſtate for the future; and for making Compenſation to the Earl of Macclesfield, and Sir Thomas Sewell, for their beneficial Rights and Intereſts in certain Leaſes made of the Rolls Eſtate; and for regulating the Method of making Leaſes of the ſaid Eſtate for the future.

Preamble. Act 12 Car. II. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act impowering the Maſter of the Rolls, for the Time being, to make Leaſes for Years, in order to new-build the old Houſes belonging to the Rolls; after thereby impowering the Maſter of the Rolls for the Time being, and his Succeſſors Maſters of the Rolls, to grant Building-leaſes for one-and-forty Years, or for any leſſer Term, of the ſaid Rolls Houſes and Premiſes, or any Part thereof (the Chapel of the Rolls, with a convenient Manſion-houſe, Court-yard, Garden, Stable, Coach-houſe, and other Out-houſes and Buildings, fit for the Uſe and Habitation of the Maſter of the Rolls, only excepted), it is provided, That the Maſter of the Rolls for the Time being, or any ſucceeding Maſter of the Rolls, after the Premiſes ſhould have been once letten according to the Power given as aforeſaid, ſhould not make or grant any new or concurrent Leaſes until within ſeven Years of the Expiration of the Leaſe then in being, nor for any leſſer Rent than was reſerved upon the former Leaſe, nor for any longer Term than for the Term of twenty-one Years from the making ſuch new Leaſe: And whereas, ſince the new-building of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes, under Leaſes granted by the Maſters of the Rolls for the Time being, by virtue of and under the Power given them by the ſaid Act for that Purpoſe, the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes (except the ſaid Chapel of the Rolls, and other the ſaid excepted Premiſes) have, from Time to Time, been letten and demiſed by the Maſters of the Rolls for the Time being, by Leaſes by them reſpectively granted thereof for the Term of twenty-one Years, at and under larger yearly Rents than were reſerved by the ſaid former Leaſes; all which ſaid yearly Rents have been and are reſerved and made payable to the Maſter of the Rolls granting ſuch Leaſes, and his Succeſſors; and ſuch yearly Rents have for many Years laſt paſt amounted, and do now amount, only to the yearly Sum of one hundred and thirty-five Pounds, but the improved Rents of the ſaid Houſes do now amount to the yearly Sum of one thouſand nine hundred and ſeventy-ſeven Pounds; the beneficial Right and Intereſt in and to which ſaid improved Rents belong to the Maſter of the Rolls granting ſuch original Leaſes, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, as his private Property, ſubject to, and after a Deduction only of the ſaid ſmall yearly Rents: And whereas, by means and in conſequence of the Exerciſe of ſuch the Right of granting and renewing the Leaſes of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes

'at

Sir Thomas Sewell, Maſter of the Rolls, is intitled to certain beneficial Rights in ſeveral Leaſes granted by him, &c.

and the Earl of Macclesfield to the improved Rents of certain Houſes,

The ſaid Earl of Macclesfield and Sir Thomas Sewell are willing to accept an Equivalent for their reſpective beneficial Rights, &c.

'at ſuch ſmall Rents as aforeſaid by the Maſter of the Rolls for the Time being, the ſucceeding Maſter 'or Maſters of the Rolls is or are deprived of the Benefit of the improved Rents of the Premiſes, which, 'after the Death of the Maſter of the Rolls by whom ſuch Leaſes were granted, accrue and belong to his 'Family, and the Income intended for the Support of the Office of the Maſter of the Rolls is rendered in 'a great Meaſure precarious and uncertain: And whereas Sir Thomas Sewell, the preſent Maſter of the 'Rolls, is now poſſeſſed or intitled to himſelf, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, of or to the 'beneficial Right and Intereſt of and in ſeveral Leaſes by him made and granted of the ſaid Houſes and 'Premiſes, by virtue of and according to the Power veſted in him by the ſaid Act of the twelfth Year of 'King Charles the Second, and the improved Rents thereof for the Term of twenty-one Years from the 'making of ſuch Leaſes, on the ſixth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven; 'and alſo of and in ſuch other Leaſes of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes, or any Part thereof, as he may at 'any Time or Times hereafter, ſo long as he ſhall continue Maſter of the Rolls, make or grant thereof, 'according to the ſaid Power, ſubject to the Right and Intereſt of the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of 'Macclesfield therein, who, as Reſiduary Legatee of Sir Thomas Clarke deceaſed, late Maſter of the Rolls, 'is intitled, under Leaſes granted of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes reſpectively by the ſaid late Maſter of 'the Rolls, to the improved Rents of ſome of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes, amounting together to the 'yearly Sum of one thouſand four hundred and fifty-ſix Pounds, Part of the ſaid yearly Sum of one thou-'ſand nine hundred and ſeventy-ſeven Pounds, down to the fifth Day of January, which will be in the 'Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-three, ſubject to and after a Deduction and 'Payment of the ſmall Rents reſerved on the Leaſes of thoſe Houſes reſpectively, amounting together to 'the yearly Sum of ninety Pounds, Part of the ſaid yearly Sum of one hundred and thirty-five Pounds; 'and is alſo intitled to the improved Rents of ſome other of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes, amounting to-'gether to the yearly Sum of four hundred and ſeventy-ſix Pounds, other Part of the ſaid yearly Sum of 'one thouſand nine hundred and ſeventy-ſeven Pounds, down to the twentieth Day of September, which 'will be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-five, ſubject to and after a De-'duction and Payment of the ſmall Rents reſerved on the Leaſes of thoſe Houſes reſpectively, amounting 'together to the yearly Sum of forty-two Pounds, other Part of the ſaid yearly Sum of one hundred and 'thirty-five Pounds; but as to one other of the ſaid Houſes, the ſmall Rent whereof is the yearly Sum of 'three Pounds, Reſidue of the ſaid yearly Sum of one hundred and thirty-five Pounds, and the improved 'Rent whereof is the yearly Sum of forty-five Pounds, Reſidue of the ſaid yearly Sum of one thouſand 'nine hundred and ſeventy-ſeven Pounds, ſubject to a Deduction and Payment of the ſaid ſmall yearly 'Rent of three Pounds, the ſaid Earl of Macclesfield has already parted with, and ſold his Right and In-'tereſt therein, in order that that Houſe might be (as it has ever ſince been, and now is) made uſe of by 'the Clerk of the Rolls Chapel, during the Time the ſaid Earl of Macclesfield's Right and Intereſt therein 'would have continued; (that is to ſay) down to the ſaid fifth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hun-'dred and eighty-three, for the Purpoſe of copying therein the Records depoſited in the ſaid Rolls Chapel: 'And whereas it is inconvenient, and highly improper, that the Maſter of the Rolls for the Time being 'ſhould not, at the Time he holds and exerciſes the ſaid Office, receive and enjoy ſo conſiderable a Part 'of the Income of the ſaid Office, towards the Support of the Rank and Dignity thereof; and it has 'therefore been propoſed to give to the ſaid Earl of Macclesfield, and to the ſaid Sir Thomas Sewell reſpec-'tively, an Equivalent for ſuch their ſeveral and reſpective beneficial Rights and Intereſts as aforeſaid, 'under the ſaid ſeveral Leaſes granted by the ſaid Maſter of the Rolls now ſubſiſting, and that the ſaid 'Maſter of the Rolls ſhall relinquiſh and give up all Right and Power of granting any more ſuch Leaſes 'for the future, by virtue of and under the ſaid Act of the twelfth Year of King Charles the Second, in 'order that the Leaſes of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes, and the Right and Power of granting the ſame 'for the future, may be properly regulated, ſo that the improved Rents of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes 'may for the future, as they ſhall become due, be received and enjoyed by the preſent and ſucceſſive 'Maſters of the Rolls for the Time being, ſubject nevertheleſs to the Proviſions hereby made thereout, 'for the Repairs, Maintenance, and Support of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes (except as aforeſaid), and 'for other the Purpoſes herein-after mentioned; and the ſaid Earl of Macclesfield and the ſaid Sir Thomas 'Sewell, reſpectively, are ready and willing to accept of an Equivalent for ſuch their ſeveral and reſpec-'tive beneficial Rights and Intereſts as aforeſaid; and the ſaid Sir Thomas Sewell alſo to relinquiſh and 'give up all Right and Power of granting any Leaſes of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes for the future, under 'and according to the ſaid Act of the twelfth Year of King Charles the Second: And whereas ſuch the 'beneficial Right and Intereſt of the ſaid Earl of Macclesfield, in the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes, appears, 'on and according to a fair and juſt Eſtimate and Valuation thereof, to be of the Value of eight thouſand 'four hundred forty-nine Pounds ſeven Shillings and Nine-pence Halfpenny, from the fifth Day of 'July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven; and ſuch the beneficial Right and Intereſt of the 'ſaid Sir Thomas Sewell, in the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes as aforeſaid, under the ſaid ſeveral Leaſes granted 'by him and now ſubſiſting, and his preſent Right and Power of granting ſuch Leaſes down to and until 'the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, excluſive of any Right and 'Power of granting any future Leaſes, under and according to the ſaid Act of the twelfth Year of King 'Charles the Second, ſubſequent to, or to take Effect from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thou-'ſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, which Right and Power of granting ſuch future Leaſes he relin-'quiſhes and gives up, appears, on a fair and juſt Eſtimate and Valuation thereof, to be of the Value of 'twelve thouſand five hundred and eighty Pounds three Shillings and one Penny; the ſaid two Sums 'of eight thouſand four hundred forty-nine Pounds ſeven Shillings and Nine pence Halfpenny, and 'twelve thouſand five hundred and eighty Pounds three Shillings and one Penny, amounting together 'to the Sum of twenty-one thouſand and twenty-nine Pounds ten Shillings and Ten-pence Halfpenny: 'And whereas, by four ſeveral Acts of Parliament, paſſed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late 'Majeſty

'Majeſty King George the Second, and in the fourth, fifth, and ninth Years of the Reign of his preſent 'Majeſty, ſeveral Sums of Money, Part of the Money belonging to the Suitors of the High Court of 'Chancery, lying dead and unemployed in the Bank of England, have been placed out on Government 'or Parliamentary Securities, and ſpecific Parts of the Intereſt ariſing therefrom have been appropriated 'for augmenting the Income of Officers belonging to the ſaid Court: And whereas, by an Act paſſed in 'the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for rebuilding the Office of the 'Six Clerks of the King's Court of Chancery; and for erecting Offices for the Regiſter and Accountant-general 'of the ſaid Court, for the better preſerving the Records, Decrees, Orders, and Books of Account, kept in ſuch 'Offices; it was enacted (among other Things), That out of the Securities purchaſed with the Surplus-'money, placed to the Account of Intereſt ariſing from Monies placed out in purſuance of the ſaid Act of 'the twelfth Year of his late Majeſty King George the Second, and out of the Intereſt produced and to 'be produced from ſuch Securities; and alſo out of the Securities purchaſed with the Surplus-money, 'placed to the Account of Intereſt ariſing from Monies placed out in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the fifth 'Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and out of the Intereſt produced and to be produced from ſuch 'Securities; and out of the Surplus-intereſt which ſhould ariſe or be produced from Securities purchaſed 'in purſuance of the ſaid ſeveral Acts of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, and of the 'fourth, fifth, and ninth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty; and out of the Intereſt which ſhould 'ariſe or be produced from Securities to be purchaſed in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the fourteenth Year 'of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty; ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as the Lord High Chancellor of 'Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, or the Lords Commiſſioners for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal of 'Great Britain, for the Time being, ſhould, in his and their Diſcretion, deem neceſſary, ſhould be paid 'by virtue of any Order or Orders of the ſaid Court; and be applied, under the Direction of the ſaid 'Court, in the firſt place, in paying and defraying the Charges and Expences attending the paſſing and 'obtaining of that Act; and then in rebuilding the ſaid Office called The Six Clerks Office, with the Of-'fices belonging thereto, and in purchaſing Ground and Houſes for that Purpoſe, if any ſhould be deemed 'neceſſary by the ſaid Court; VII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That out of ſuch the Surplus Rents and Profits of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes, hereby appropriated for the Purpoſe of repairing, ſupporting, and rebuilding, and inſuring the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes (excluſive of and except as aforeſaid), or out of what the ſame, or any Part thereof, ſhall be inveſted in, ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, as the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, ſhall, from Time to Time, direct or appoint, ſhall be paid and applied in or towards the repairing and ſupporting of the ſaid Rolls Houſes and Premiſes, or in rebuilding the ſame, or any of them, and in inſuring the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes from Fire, in ſuch Manner as by any Order or Orders of the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners, to be made for thoſe Purpoſes reſpectively, ſhall be directed; and that the ſaid Fund, or any Part thereof, ſhall or may, from Time to Time, by virtue and in purſuance of any Order or Orders of the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners, for that Purpoſe, be placed out and inveſted in Government Securities, in the Name of the ſaid Accountant-general, and placed to the ſaid Account of the Rolls Eſtate, and the Intereſt or Dividends

Out of the Surplus Rents of the ſaid Houſes, &c. the Lord Chancellor may order any Sums to be applied towards repairing the ſame, and inſuring them from Fire.

'VIII. And whereas, by reaſon and in conſequence of the ſaid Earl of Macclesfield's having ſold and 'diſpoſed of ſuch his beneficial Right and Intereſt in the ſaid Houſe of the improved yearly Rent of forty-'five Pounds, in which (in caſe he had not ſo ſold the ſame) he would now have had a Term of ſix Years 'to come, from the making of the Leaſe thereof on the ſaid ſixth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven 'hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, there will not be any Rent payable for the ſaid Houſe for the ſaid ſix Years to 'the Maſter or Maſters of the Rolls for the Time being, and in the Eſtimate and Valuation of the ſaid 'Earl of Macclesfield's Intereſt in the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes a Deduction is made on Account thereof;' it is therefore provided and hereby enacted, That out of the Intereſt ariſing, and which ſhall ariſe, from Monies placed out in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the fourteenth of his preſent Majeſty, there ſhall and may, by virtue of an Order or Orders of the ſaid Court of Chancery, to be made for that Purpoſe, although all the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts of the fourteenth and fifteenth Years of his preſent Majeſty may not have been, or have been deemed by him or them to have been fully ſatisfied as aforeſaid, be paid the yearly Sum of forty-five Pounds, by half-yearly Payments, to the Receiver, ſo to be appointed, of the Rents and Profits of the ſaid Rolls Houſes and Premiſes, for the Time being, for the Term of ſix Years, to be computed from the making of the ſaid laſt mentioned Leaſe of the ſixth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, in lieu of, and as a Recompence and Satisfaction for, the ſaid yearly Rent of forty-five Pounds for the ſaid Term of ſix Years; and which ſaid yearly Sum of forty-five Pounds ſhall be deemed and had and taken as Part of the yearly Rents and Profits of the ſaid Houſes and Premiſes of which ſuch Receiver ſhall be appointed, and be applied and diſpoſed of as Part of the ſaid yearly Rents and Profits accordingly, in Manner and for the Purpoſes herein-before mentioned concerning the ſaid Rents and Profits.

Out of the Intereſt ariſing under the ſaid Act 14 Geo. III. the Court of Chancery may order 45 l. per Ann. to be paid, for ſix Years, to the Receiver of the ſaid Rents, in Lieu of the improved Rent of the Houſe before-mentioned.

'IX. This Act not to vacate Leaſes granted by the Earl of Macclesfield at the moſt improved Rents:

But the ſaid Rents, from Jan. 6, 1777, are to be paid to the Receiver before mentioned.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Powers granted by Law in Scotland relative to Highways and Bridges, and the 'Services and Work, and Monies, which are thereby authoriſed to be exacted and levied, have 'been found by Experience inſufficient to amend, keep in Repair, and make the Roads and Bridges 'neceſſary within the County of Wigton, and that other and further Powers are requiſite to be given to 'the Heritors and Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County, effectually to carry the Intention of the ſaid 'Laws into Execution; and as this cannot be obtained without the Aid of Parliament;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Perſon who is at preſent, or hereafter ſhall be, in his own Right, or in the Right of his Wife, in the actual Poſſeſſion and Enjoyment, as Proprietor or Life-renter, of Lands lying within the ſaid County of Wigton, as valued in the Tax-roll or Valuation Books for the ſaid County, to the Extent of one hundred Pounds Scots per Annum; and all and every the eldeſt Sons of ſuch Perſons, being Heirs of ſaid Property, and alſo the Sheriff-depute of the ſaid County for the Time being, and the chief reſiding Magiſtrate of every Royal Borough within the ſaid County, during his Magiſtracy only, ſhall be, and they are hereby nominated and appointed Truſtees and Commiſſioners for making, repairing, widening and keeping in Repair, the Highways, Roads, and Bridges within the ſaid County, and for executing all other the Powers by this Act to them given and granted.

Truſtees.

Penalty on acting if not qualified.

II. Provided always, That if any Perſon not qualified as aforeſaid ſhall preſume to act as a Truſtee, every ſuch Perſon ſhall, for ſuch acting, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds Sterling, beſides the Expence of Proſecution; to be recovered by Complaint in a ſummary Way, at the Suit of any Heritor within the ſaid County, before the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter Seſſions, or before the Sheriff-depute of the ſaid County, or his Subſtitute, which Penalty ſhall be paid to the Truſtees aforeſaid, to be by them applied for repairing the ſaid Roads; and in caſe any ſuch Complaint ſhall be made, the Proof of Qualification ſhall lie upon the Defendant.

Diviſion of the County into two Diſtricts.

'III. And, for the more eaſy and effectual Execution of this Act, and of the Powers herein-after 'granted,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid County be divided into two Diſtricts; one Diſtrict to conſiſt of the ſeveral Pariſhes within the ſaid County in the Preſbytery of Wigton, and the other Diſtrict to conſiſt of the other Pariſhes within the ſaid County in the Preſbytery of Stranraer; and the aforeſaid Truſtees or Commiſſioners ſhall hold their firſt Meeting in the Town-hall of Wigton, the ſecond Tueſday of June next at Mid-day, in order to concert and give the propereſt Inſtructions for carrying this Act into Execution; and thereafter the ſaid Truſtees or Commiſſioners, within the Diſtrict in which their Lands reſpectively do lie, or any five or more of them, ſhall annually hold a Meeting at Wigton the firſt Tueſday of October, and at Stranraer the firſt Friday of October, at Mid-day, declaring five Five Truſtees may adjourn, &c.

Truſtees by this Act to be a Quorum, with Power to them, or the Majority of thoſe preſent, at ſaid fixed (or other Diſtrict) Meetings, to adjourn to ſuch other Times and Places within each Diſtrict reſpectively as they may judge proper, and with Power alſo to chooſe a Preſes and Clerk, and to make ſuch Appointments and give ſuch Directions as to them the Truſtees for each Diſtrict ſeparately ſhall ſeem proper; and the ſaid Truſtees or Commiſſioners ſhall have Power to act in any one of the ſaid Diſtricts, whether reſiding therein or not, provided they have the Qualification therein required by this Act; and the ſaid Truſtees ſhall at all their different Meetings pay and defray their own Expences.

Proviſo relating to Adjournments.

IV. Provided always, That where the Number preſent at the ſaid fixed Diſtrict Meetings, or other Meetings called or appointed by Adjournment, ſhall not amount to five Truſtees, and that three Truſtees preſent ſhall think fit to adjourn the Meeting, then, and in that Caſe, ten Days previous Notice of the Day and Purpoſe of the adjourned Meeting (which ſhall be to the ſame Place) ſhall be given in Manner herein-after mentioned: And provided alſo, that any three Truſtees may, at any Time, call a Diſtrict Meeting upon ten Days Notice thereof, and of the Purpoſe and Buſineſs of ſuch Meeting, and the Clerk ſhall, in ſuch Caſes, always intimate by circular Letters, to the Truſtees reſident in the Diſtrict for which the Meeting is called, the Day and Purpoſe of ſuch Meeting.

Truſtees in each Diſtrict to be furniſhed with the Valuation of each Pariſh; and ſhall make up exact Liſts of the Valuation of every Poſſeſſion of Land;

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees, or any five or more of them, at their ſaid firſt Meeting, the ſecond Tueſday of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or at any ſubſequent Diſtrict Meetings, ſhall have Power, and they are hereby required to call for Copies or Extracts of the Tax Roll, or Valuation Liſt of the Lands, in the ſeveral Pariſhes within each of the ſaid two Diſtricts, and which Copies and Extracts, duly atteſted, the Collector of the Land Tax in the ſaid County is hereby directed to furniſh them with; and therefrom the ſaid Truſtees ſhall make, for the ſole Uſe and Purpoſe of this Act, exact Liſts of the valued Rent of every Perſon's Poſſeſſion in every

every Pariſh within the ſaid two Diſtricts ſeverally, whether the ſame be occupied by the Owners, or by Tenants; and in caſe two or more Poſſeſſions ſhall ſtand valued in cumulo, or together, the ſaid Truſtees ſhall call the Proprietor, or his Factor, to give in a Diviſion of ſaid Cumulo Valuation, proportional among the different Poſſeſſions, which State ſhall be ſubject to the Reviſal of the Meeting; or in caſe of Neglect, they ſhall by an Inquiry into the Proportion that the different Poſſeſſions bear to each other, divide the total Valuation of the Whole, ſo valued in cumulo, proportionably among the Parts, and thereby aſcertain and fix the Compoſition in Money for Statute Services and Labour, to be required from every Occupier of Land, as herein-after mentioned: And alſo exact Liſts ſhall be made up of all Perſons keeping Horſes for Hire or Labour, and the Number of Horſes kept by each Perſon: And likewiſe exact Liſts ſhall be made up of all Perſons whatever chargeable with Statute Labour, as herein-after mentioned: And the ſaid Liſts ſhall be made for every Pariſh reſpectively, within the two Diſtricts aforeſaid, and ſhall be from Time to Time reviſed and altered as a Change of Perſons and Circumſtances may require: And alſo the ſaid Truſtees may and ſhall appoint fit Perſons to be their Clerks, Collectors, Caſhiers, or other Officers, during their Pleaſure, with reaſonable Allowances for their Care and Pains, ſuch Allowances for the whole Officers not exceeding five per Centum of the whole Money levied; and ſuch Collectors and Caſhiers ſhall find Security for their good Behaviour and faithful accounting, and ſhall account every ſix Months, or oftener, if required by any five Truſtees upon Oath before two Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County: And in caſe any ſuch Collector, or Caſhier, ſhall, after ten Days Notice given him for that Purpoſe, under the Hands of any five or more Truſtees, refuſe to give in ſuch Account or Accounts, and to ſwear to the Truth thereof, or ſhall refuſe to pay the Balance due thereon to the Perſon or Perſons appointed by the ſaid Truſtees to receive the ſame, then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for any two Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County or Diſtrict to commit the Offender to the County Gaol, there to remain until ſuch Account ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied, or until he ſhall be liberated therefrom in due Courſe of Law.

and of Perſons keeping Horſes for Hire or Labour, &c.

Truſtees to appoint Officers.

Penalty on Defaulters.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees for each of the reſpective Diſtricts ſhall enter their Proceedings, and an exact Account of the Money received by virtue of this Act, and of the Application of it, in a Book to be kept by their Clerk, which all Heritors of the ſaid County ſhall have Liberty to inſpect gratis.

Proceedings to be entered in a Book.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, who by Law are chargeable towards repairing and amending the ſaid Roads by Statute Service, ſhall ſtill remain chargeable in ſo far as to be compelled by the Truſtees or Commiſſioners to pay a Converſion in Money, as is by this Act declared.

Thoſe liable in Statute Service, to pay Converſion Money.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Perſons in the actual Poſſeſſion of their own Lands, are and ſhall be deemed chargeable in the ſame Manner as Tenants who occupy Lands, and that all Carters and Carriers, and other Perſons keeping Horſes for Hire or Labour, ſhall pay a Compoſition for themſelves, and for ſuch labouring Horſe or Horſes as ſhall be employed by them reſpectively, as herein-after mentioned; and that all Houſeholders, Cottagers, Labourers, and Tradeſmen, and their Servants and Journeymen (Apprentices only excepted), ſhall pay a Compoſition in Lieu thereof, as by this Act is herein-after directed.

What Perſons are chargeable therewith.

IX. Provided, That no Servants hired by the Year, or Half-year, nor Cottars who work as Servants by the Year, and whoſe Maſters ſhall be ſubjected to pay a Compoſition for the Land wherein ſuch Servants and Cottars reſide, or other labouring People hired by the Tenant or Proprietor by the Year, ſhall be liable in any Compoſition in place of Statute Service.

Proviſo.

'X. And whereas it hath generally been found that a reaſonable Compoſition in Money, in place of 'Labour, is more uſeful and effectual for the Purpoſe of repairing the Roads, as well as more eaſy and 'convenient for the Perſons liable by Law in Statute Services, than their being called out and obliged to 'perform the actual Service required by the Laws now in Force relative to Highways;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon chargeable to ſuch Statute Services, ſhall hereafter, in Lieu thereof, pay ſuch a Converſion in Money or Compoſition for the ſame, as ſhall be fixed by the Truſtees of each Diſtrict at their ſaid Annual Meetings reſpectively, not exceeding the Rates following; (that is to ſay) All Occupiers of Land, whether Heritors or Tenants, ſhall be liable to pay yearly a Compoſition in Money for the Lands occupied by them reſpectively, by the valued Rent of ſuch Land, not exceeding fifteen Shillings Sterling for each one hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent; but the Tenant in Lands now let for Paſture only, ſhall be entitled to a Deduction from his Rent of the Compoſition Money paid by him for his Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Paſture Lands, which the Heritor or Landlord ſhall allow, and be burthened with: And all Carters, Carriers, and other Perſons keeping Horſes for Hire or Labour, ſhall, by way of Compoſition for Statute Service, pay at the Rate to be fixed as aforeſaid, not exceeding Ten-pence Sterling per Day for each Horſe, and Five-pence Sterling for each Man per Day. Provided always, That ſo far as the ſaid Carters, Carriers, and other Perſons keeping Horſes for Hire or Labour, ſhall rent any Lands and be aſſeſſed in the Quality of Tenants for the Lands occupied by them reſpectively, they ſhall be entitled to a Deduction out of ſuch Aſſeſſment to the Extent of the Rate or Compoſition to which they are hereby made ſubject in reſpect of their Horſes, and the Compoſition to be demanded and exacted from Houſeholders: And all the before-mentioned Perſons in the ſame Claſs chargeable with Statute Services, ſhall be at the Rate to be fixed as aforeſaid, not exceeding Five-pence Sterling per Day for each of the ſix Days Labour: And the Whole of the aforeſaid Sums ſhall be paid, by equal Moieties, on or before the twenty-fifth Day of June and the twenty-fifth Day of December yearly, to a Collector or Collectors to be appointed by the ſaid Truſtees, and who are to keep an exact Account of the Money ſo collected, and ſhall be allowed a ſuitable Gratification for their Trouble.

The Statute Labour of the County to be converted into Money.

Proviſo.

XI. And alſo be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Collector of the Land Tax, or Ceſs, of each Royal Borough in the ſaid County for the Time being, ſhall be annually bound to collect the

Converſion Money in Royal Boroughs to be collected by the Collectors of the Land Tax;

Conversion Money of the Statute Work of the Inhabitants and others residing within such Royal Borough, in case he shall be desired or required so to do by the Trustees or Commissioners of the District, at their first annual or any after Meeting, and shall be bound to account for and pay unto the said Trustees, or any Person empowered by them, the Monies he shall so collect and receive, after Deduction of five Pounds per Centum of the Sums so collected to be allowed him for his Trouble; and that under the Penalty of five Pounds Sterling, to be paid by such Collector, to the Trustees or Commissioners of the District, for every such Offence in refusing or neglecting so to do, which Penalty shall be levied and recovered in Manner herein-after directed.

who shall be allowed 5 per Cent.

Exemption of indigent Persons.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for a Quorum of the said Trustees to exempt and free from Payment of any Composition for Statute Work, all such Persons as shall appear to them to be in indigent Circumstances, and unable to pay for the same.

If Conversion be not duly paid, it may be levied by Distress.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall neglect or refuse, on or before the said respective Days, to pay the aforesaid Conversion when required, then it shall be lawful for the Sheriff depute, or any two or more of the said Justices of the Peace, to grant summary Warrants for poinding the Effects of the Defaulter for Payment of the converted Values before-mentioned, and One-third Part more, besides the Expence of Execution; which Warrants shall be granted, and the Sheriff and Justices aforesaid are hereby required to grant the same, upon an Application made by the Collector, and an Attestation signed by him, bearing that the Persons complained of had been deficient in paying the Conversion before-mentioned.

Persons aggrieved shall receive Treble Damages, &c.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby expressly provided and declared, That the Sheriff-depute, or the Justices of the Peace aforesaid, or any two or more of them, shall award Damages to the Treble Value to be paid to the Persons aggrieved by such Warrant or Warrants by the Collector, if they shall find a false and improper Accusation has occasioned the said Warrant and Distress: And in case the Collector shall fail to exact the aforesaid Conversions, he shall be liable, and, by Sentence of one or more of the said Judges, be subjected to pay Treble the Conversion Money so omitted to be exacted by him.

Every 100 l. Scots to pay 1 s. 10 d. Sterling towards building, &c. of Bridges, 'XV. And whereas it has been found by Experience, from the great Number of Roads and Bridges, 'and the daily Increase of Carriages, within the said County of Wigton, that the Sum of ten Shillings 'Scots upon each hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, authorised to be levied by the sixtieth Act of the 'second Parliament of King Charles the Second, has been insufficient for keeping the said Roads and 'Bridges in Repair, and for making such others as may be deemed necessary;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Supply for the said County, or the Majority of those present at the Annual Meeting appointed by the Land Tax Act, or any other adjourned or General Meeting in Time coming, to assess the whole County to the Extent of twenty-two Shillings Scots, or one Shilling and Ten-pence Sterling, upon every one hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent yearly, to be levied by the Collector of Supply at the same Time with the Land Tax of the said County, and applied towards building, making, repairing, and upholding the Bridges, and repairing the Roads, in the said County, where the Commissioners shall direct.

Trustees empowered to borrow on the Conversion Money of each Parish, not exceeding three Years Income; and to assign the Conversions as a Security.

'XVI. ## CAP. XVII.

An Act for building an additional Jail, and alſo a Priſon and Houſe of Correction, within the County of Cornwall; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the common Jail of the County of Cornwall for Criminals is within the Caſtle of Launceſton in the ſaid County, which is at preſent in a very decayed Condition, and being ſituated near the Eaſtern Extremity of the County, the Eaſe and Convenience of the Inhabitants would be beſt ſuited by an additional Jail for Criminals being provided nearer the Centre of the ſaid County; and the Borough of Bodmin in the ſaid County, being, from its Situation, and the Advantages of healthy Air, a good Soil, and Plenty of pure and wholeſome Water, eſteemed the propereſt Place for the Erection of ſuch additional or new Jail; the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the ſaid Borough have, in order to forward the Deſign of erecting the ſame, agreed to give up a Piece or Parcel of Ground lying within the ſaid Borough, being Part of the Poſſeſſions of the Corporation, and commonly called or known by the Name of Berrycoombe, otherwiſe Burcom, as and for the Site of the ſaid intended Jail, being very convenient and proper to be uſed for that Purpoſe, without receiving any pecuniary or other Conſideration for the ſame: And whereas the ſaid Jail within the Caſtle of Launceſton aforeſaid has been hitherto kept in Repair by and out of the Revenues of the Duke of Cornwall for the Time being, and his Majeſty, being diſpoſed to promote the Convenience and Security of his Subjects in the ſaid County, hath been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to order a certain Sum of Money to be advanced and paid out of the aforeſaid Revenues, to be applied as well for putting the ſaid laſt-mentioned Jail into immediate Repair, as towards erecting the ſaid intended new Jail; upon Condition, that the Duke of Cornwall for the Time being may be for ever freed and diſcharged, not only from all Contributions to the future Repairs of the ſaid Jail within the Caſtle of Launceſton aforeſaid, but alſo from all Charges and Expences which may attend the erecting and finiſhing of the ſaid intended new Jail, or the future Repairs thereof; which ſaid Sum has been accordingly paid to and accepted by his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace of and for the ſaid County, in their General or Quarter Seſſions aſſembled, upon the Conditions aforeſaid: And whereas, beſides the ſaid preſent and intended Jails for Criminals, a Ward or Priſon for the ſecure keeping of Debtors, and alſo a Houſe of Correction for certain Offenders, are greatly wanted in the ſaid County, there being at preſent no public Building for either of thoſe Purpoſes; and, as the ſame may be moſt conveniently united to the ſaid intended Jail for Criminals, it has been propoſed, that the intended Building within the Borough of Bodmin aforeſaid ſhall conſiſt as well of a Jail for Criminals, as of a Ward or Priſon for Debtors, and a Houſe of Correction; but foraſmuch as the erecting, completing and finiſhing of the ſaid intended Jail, Priſon, and Houſe of Correction, will neceſſarily require a conſiderable Sum of Money, beyond what has been already advanced by his Majeſty's Order as aforeſaid, and no Money can or may be raiſed or collected for that Purpoſe without the Aid and Authority of Parliament:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled,

A Piece of Ground within the Borough of Bodmin veſted in the Juſtices of the County of Cornwall; who are to build a new Jail, &c. thereon.

and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Piece or Parcel of Ground, ſituate, lying, and being within the Borough of Bodmin aforeſaid, Part of the Poſſeſſions of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the ſaid Borough, and commonly called or known by the Name of Berrycoombe, otherwiſe Burcom, with the Appurtenances, ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this preſent Act, be ſettled upon and veſted in, and the ſame is hereby thenceforth ſettled upon and veſted in his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace of and for the ſaid County of Cornwall for the Time being.

II. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Juſtices to cauſe to be built, erected, perfected, and finiſhed, upon the ſaid Piece or Parcel of Ground hereby veſted in them as aforeſaid, a ſtrong, proper, and convenient Jail for the Confinement of Criminals, and alſo a Ward or Priſon for the ſecure keeping of Debtors, and likewiſe a Houſe of Correction for the confining of certain Offenders to be kept to hard Labour, or otherwiſe, as by Law they may be ſubject, together with proper Places for the Reſidence of the Jailer, Turnkey, and Maſter or Keeper of the Houſe of Correction reſpectively; and alſo ſuch other Buildings and Conveniencies as ſhall, by the ſaid Juſtices, to be aſſembled in their General or Quarter Seſſions, or the major Part of them, be from Time to Time adjudged requiſite or proper for rendering the ſaid intended Jail, Priſon, and Houſe of Correction, more ſecure and commodious, and beſt calculated to anſwer the reſpective Purpoſes for which the ſame are to be erected.

Jail, &c. to be public.

III. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid intended Jail, Priſon, and Houſe of Correction, when and as ſoon as the ſame ſhall reſpectively be built and finiſhed, ſhall and are hereby declared to be a public and common Jail, Priſon, and Houſe of Correction, for the ſaid County; and that as well the ſaid intended Jail, and the ſaid other Jail within the Caſtle of Launceſton aforeſaid, as the ſaid Houſe of Correction, and the Buildings thereto reſpectively belonging, ſhall, from Time to Time, be maintained, ſupported, and repaired, by ſuch Ways and Means, and in ſuch Manner, as other Jails and Houſes of Correction in this Kingdom are by Law directed to be ſupported and maintained, any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding: And that the Sheriff of the ſaid County for the Time being ſhall have the keeping of the ſaid intended Jail and Priſon, and ſhall have Power, when the ſame are reſpectively made fit for the Reception of Priſoners, to remove thither ſuch or ſo many of the Criminals and Debtors then in his Cuſtody, as he ſhall think neceſſary or proper; which Removal ſhall not be deemed or taken to be an Eſcape: And that the ſaid intended Houſe of Correction ſhall belong to and be under the Care and Management of the Juſtices of the ſaid County for the Time being, to be by them applied to ſuch Uſes and Purpoſes as Houſes of Correction in general are by Law applicable to.

Sheriff to have the keeping of the Jail and Priſon, and Juſtices of the Houſe of Correction.

Debtors Priſon to be maintained by the Sheriff.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid intended Ward or Priſon for Debtors, with the Buildings thereto belonging, ſhall from Time to Time, and at all Times after the ſame ſhall be erected and completed as aforeſaid, be maintained, ſupported, and kept in Repair, by and at the Expence of the Sheriff of the ſaid County for the Time being; and that in caſe of any Default or Want of Repairs of the ſaid Priſon at the Time of the immediate Sheriff for the Time being delivering over the Priſoners, then in his Cuſtody, to his Succeſſor, ſuch Succeſſor ſhall have and be intitled to his Remedy or Action at Law againſt his Predeceſſor, for Recovery of ſuch Damages as ſhall be an adequate Satisfaction for ſuch Want of Repairs, together with his full Coſts of Suit.

Contracts for building the Jail, &c. confirmed.

V. And be it further enacted, That all ſuch Contracts and Agreements as the ſaid Juſtices have already entered into, or ſhall or may hereafter enter into, for the repairing the ſaid Jail in the ſaid Caſtle of Launceſton, and alſo for erecting, completing, and perfecting the ſaid intended new Jail, Priſon, Houſe of Correction, and other Buildings, with any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby ratified, confirmed, and eſtabliſhed, to and for all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

'VI. And whereas it will be neceſſary, when the ſaid intended new Jail, Priſon, and Houſe of Correction, are finiſhed and perfected, that a certain Stream of Water ſhould be carried and conveyed thereto, from a Place, within the ſaid Borough of Bodmin, called Fairwaſh, through, over, and along certain Lands and Grounds lying between that Place and the ſaid Parcel of Ground called Berrycoombe, otherwiſe Burcom, the Property of divers Perſons, for the Purpoſe of ſupplying the ſaid intended Jail, Priſon, and Houſe of Correction, with Water; and the Owners of the ſaid Lands having agreed that the ſaid Stream may be ſo conveyed over the ſame for that Purpoſe, on having a reaſonable Satisfaction made to them for ſuch Permiſſion;' be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Juſtices, in their General or Quarter Seſſions aſſembled, or the major Part of them, to contract and agree with the ſeveral Owners or Proprietors of, or other Perſons intereſted in, the ſaid Lands or Grounds through and over which the ſaid Stream of Water is intended to be carried, from the ſaid Place called Fairwaſh, to the ſaid new Jail, Priſon, and Houſe of Correction, for ſupplying the ſame with Water as aforeſaid, for the Purchaſe of ſo much and ſuch Part of the ſaid Lands as ſhall appear neceſſary to be taken and uſed for that Purpoſe, or for the Liberty or Permiſſion of carrying ſuch Stream of Water through and over the ſame: And that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all and every or any Perſon or Perſons, who are or ſhall or may be ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of, intereſted in, or intitled to, the ſaid Lands and Grounds; and alſo for all Huſbands, Guardians, and Truſtees, Committees, Executors and Adminiſtrators, and all other Truſtees, as well for themſelves, as for and on Behalf of their Ceſtuique Truſts, whether Infants or Iſſue unborn, Lunatics, Idiots, Femes-covert, or other Perſons whomſoever, and to and for all Femes-covert ſeiſed or intereſted in their own Right, and to and for all and every other Perſon and Perſons whomſoever, ſeiſed, poſſeſſed, intereſted, or intitled, of, in, or to the ſaid Lands and Grounds, or any Part thereof, under any Manner of Right or Title whatſoever, to enter into Contract with the ſaid Juſtices, in their General or Quarter Seſſions aſſembled, or the major Part of them, for the Sale of ſo much and ſuch Part or Parts of the ſaid Lands and Grounds as ſhall be thought neceſſary, or be required by them, for the conveying of the aforeſaid Stream of Water to the ſaid intended Jail, Priſon, and Houſe of Correction, through and over the ſaid Lands and Grounds as aforeſaid, or otherwiſe for the Liberty

CAP. XX.

An Act for further continuing the Duties granted by three Acts, made in the fifth and twenty-fifth Years of his late Majesty King George the Second, and in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for enlarging the Pier and Harbour of Scarborough, in the County of York.

Preamble; reciting Acts 5 Geo. II.

'WHEREAS, by an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the 'Second, intituled, An Act to enlarge the Pier and Harbour of Scarborough, in the County of York, 'there was given and granted a Duty of one Halfpenny for every Chaldron of Coals laden on Board any 'Vessel at or in the Port of Newcastle upon Tyne, or at Sunderland, or any other Port or Place reputed a 'Member of the said Port of Newcastle upon Tyne, to be payable until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one 'thousand seven hundred and sixty-three; and also several other Duties, in the said Act mentioned, upon 'certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, landed in, or shipped off from, the said Port of Scarborough, 'which were to have Continuance until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and 'eighty-three; all which Duties the said Act directed to be paid to the Bailiffs and Burgesses of Scarbo- 'rough, to be applied for the Purpose of enlarging, extending, improving, and repairing the said Pier and 'Harbour; and to be collected, recovered, managed, and disposed of, by such Ways and Means, and 'under such Regulations, Directions, Restrictions, Penalties, and Provisoes, as are therein mentioned:

25 Geo. II.,

'And whereas, by an Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, to explain, 'amend, and make more effectual, the said former Act, Provision was made for taking the Powers, cre- 'ated by the said former Act, out of the Hands of the said Bailiffs and Burgesses, and vesting the same in and 3 Geo. III.

'Trustees named therein, and to be appointed in pursuance thereof; and several other Regulations were 'made for the Purpose of improving and better managing the said Harbour: And whereas, by an Act made 'in the third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for continuing the Duties, and enlarging the Powers 'granted by the said two former Acts, it was enacted, That the aforesaid Duty upon Coals should be (save 'as therein-after mentioned) continued, from and after the Expiration thereof, for and during the further 'Term of twenty Years; and that the said Duty should and might be collected, recovered, managed, and 'disposed of, by such Ways and Means, and under such Regulations, Directions, Restrictions, Penalties, 'and Provisoes, and with such Powers and Authorities, during the said extended Term, as the same was, 'might, or could be then done or performed by virtue of the said former Acts, or either of them; and 'certain further Regulations were thereby made for the Purpose of improving and better managing and 'keeping in Repair the said Harbour: And whereas, in consequence of the said Acts, the said Harbour 'hath been greatly improved; and, for enlarging and making the same extensively useful, a new Pier was 'some Years ago begun, and is now carrying on at a very large annual Expence, which, when finished, 'will render the said Harbour more safe and commodious than it now is, and will be of the greatest Ad- 'vantage and Security to Trade, and of public Utility: But forasmuch as the said new Pier cannot be 'completed, and the other Works done, which from Time to Time must become necessary to keep the 'said Harbour in sufficient Repair for the future, unless the said Duties be continued for a further Term of 'Years:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Duty on Coals (save as in the said last-recited Act is saved or mentioned) and also the said Duty upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, landed in, or shipped off from, the said Port of Scarborough, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be continued, from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, for and during the further Term of twenty Years; and that so much and such Part of the aforesaid three several recited Acts, and all and singular the Powers and Authorities thereby respectively given, and all and every the Clauses, Provisoes, Matters, and Things, therein respectively contained, as is or are now in Force, shall, for collecting, levying, recovering, managing, disposing of, securing, and accounting for, the Duties hereby granted or continued, and the Duties which may be in Arrear under the said former Acts, or any of them, and for the managing, enlarging, improving, and repairing, the said Pier and Harbour, and to that End for levying and recovering the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned in the said recited Acts, or any of them, and for other the Purposes of this Act, be continued, and be in full Force during the said extended Term, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same were particularly and at large repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

The Duties granted by the recited Acts further continued for 20 Years.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Bailiffs for the Time being of the said Borough of Scarborough shall be, and are hereby declared to be, added to and joined with the Commissioners for putting the said former Acts and this Act in Execution, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as they could or might have done in case they had been appointed Commissioners by, or described in, and qualified according to, the Directions of the said Act of the twenty-fifth Year of his late Majesty King George the Second; and that such Parts of the said several Acts as authorise any five or more of the Commissioners to put the said Acts in Execution,

The Bailiffs of Scarborough to be Commissioners, and the Quorum enlarged.

Execution, ſhall be, and are hereby repealed; and that in future any Number of the ſaid Commiſſioners, not being leſs than ſeven of them, ſhall and may put the ſaid Acts in Execution, in ſuch and the ſame Manner as by the ſaid Acts, or any of them, any five or more Commiſſioners are impowered to do.

Accounts may be produced at either Michaelmas or Chriſtmas Seſſions.

'III. And whereas by the ſaid Act, paſſed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the 'Second, it is directed, That all Accounts, ſtated and ſigned by the Commiſſioners at their public Meet-'ings, ſhall, at every Quarter Seſſions to be holden for the North Riding of the County of York next after 'Chriſtmas, be produced to his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace then and there preſent, for their Inſpection 'and Allowance: And whereas it ſometimes happens, that, from the Inclemency of the Seaſon, it is very 'inconvenient, and even dangerous, for the proper Officer to attend ſuch Chriſtmas Seſſions with the ſaid 'Accounts:' Be it therefore further enacted, That the ſaid Accounts ſhall and may be produced and allowed, either at the Michaelmas or Chriſtmas Seſſions, as ſhall be moſt convenient for the Treaſurer or other proper Officer; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Expences of this Act how to be paid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Charges and Expences in and about obtaining and paſſing this Act ſhall, as ſoon as the ſame can be conveniently done, be paid out of the Monies to ariſe by the ſaid former Acts or this Act.

Public Act.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a public Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whatſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act for enabling his Majesty to settle on their Royal Highnesses the Princes Frederick Bishop of Osnaburgh, William Henry, Edward, Ernest Augustus, Augustus Frederick, and Adolphus Frederick, an Annuity of sixty thousand Pounds per Annum; and also to settle on their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Charlotte Augusta Matilda, Augusta Sophia, Elizabeth, Mary, and Sophia, one other Annuity of thirty thousand Pounds per Annum; and also to settle on his Highness Prince William Frederick one other Annuity of eight thousand Pounds per Annum; and on her Highness the Princess Sophia Matilda one other Annuity of four thousand Pounds per Annum.

'WHEREAS your Majesty hath been pleased to recommend to the Consideration of your faithful Commons, that a competent Provision should be made for your Majesty's six younger Sons, and also for your Majesty's Daughters, to take Effect after the Demise of your Majesty (whom God long preserve); and also for the Son and Daughter of your Majesty's dearly beloved Brother the Duke of Glouceſter, to take Effect after the Decease of the said Duke of Glouceſter: And whereas by an Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the better Support of her Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, to the End that the Land Revenues of the Crown might be preserved, improved, and encreased, to the best Advantage thereof, it was among other Things enacted and declared, That all and every Grant, Lease, or other Assurance, which, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and two, should be made or granted, in Manner therein mentioned, of any the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, therein specified, other than such Grants, Leases, and Assurances, as are therein excepted, should be utterly void and of no Effect; and by another Act, made in the ninth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for establishing a General Post-office for all her Majesty's Dominions; and for settling a weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof, for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions; to the Intent that the Inheritance of such Part of the Duties and Revenues arising in and by the General Letter-office or Post-office, which was thereby vested in her said late Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, undeterminable, as therein mentioned, might be preserved in the Crown for the future Benefit thereof, it was (among other Things) enacted and declared, That the same, or any Part thereof, should not be alienable, chargeable, or grantable by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, for any Estate, Term, or Time whatsoever, to endure longer than the Life of her Majesty, or of such King or Queen as should make such Alienation, Charge, or Grant respectively; and that all Gifts, Grants, Alienations, or Assurances whatsoever, to be had or made of, or charged upon, the same Duties or Revenues, or any Part thereof, contrary to the Provisions of that Act, should be null and void: And whereas by an Act, made in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Support of his Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain, the Duties and Revenues commonly called The Hereditary Revenues, together with several temporary Duties and Revenues thereby continued, and all other Branches and Revenues which, on the twenty-fourth Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and sixty, stood settled or appointed to go and be paid towards the Support of the Household of his late Majesty King George the Second, of blessed Memory, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and certain other small Branches of your Majesty's Revenues therein also expressed (except as therein excepted), were, during your Majesty's Life, carried to and made Part of the General or Aggregate Fund, established by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First: And whereas by another Act, made in the fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to alter certain Rates of Postage; and to amend, explain, and enlarge, several Provisions in an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Post-office; it was enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Rates therein before-mentioned (except as is therein excepted) should be appropriated and applied to such and the same Uses to which the then Rates of Postage were respectively by Law appropriated and made applicable: Now we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, having taken into Consideration the present State of your Royal Family, more numerous in its Branches than these Kingdoms have had the Happiness of seeing in any former Reign; and thinking it highly just and reasonable that your Majesty should be enabled to make Provision for their honourable Support and Maintenance;' do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the King's most Excellent Majesty, by any Letters Patent, or by several Letters Patents, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, hereafter to be made, to give and grant unto their Royal Highnesses Prince Frederick Bishop of Osnaburgh, Prince William Henry, Prince Edward, Prince Ernest Augustus, Prince Augustus Frederick, and Prince Adolphus Frederick, and to the Survivors and Survivor of them, or to such other Person or Persons as his Majesty shall think fit to be named in such Letters Patent, and his or their Heirs, during the Lives of their said Royal Highnesses, and the Life of the Survivor of them, in Trust for their said Royal Highnesses, and the Survivors or Survivor of them, one Annuity or yearly Sum of Money, not exceeding the Sum of sixty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain by the Year, to commence and take Effect from the Day of the Demise of his Majesty (whom God long preserve), and to be paid and payable,

Pounds,

'Pounds, with the Intereſt thereof, and raiſing the ſaid fifty-eight thouſand five hundred Pounds, as for 'defraying the Expences of lighting, watching, cleanſing, and repairing, the ſaid Bridge when built; 'and that it would tend to remove many Inconveniencies if the Ground and Soil of the ſaid River of 'Thames, between the Weſt Corner of Powell's Wharf near Puddle dock, in the ſaid City of London, and 'the Eaſt Corner of Robert's Wharf near Milford-lane, in the ſaid County of Middleſex, was incloſed and 'embanked, the Expence of making which Embankment was eſtimated at the Sum of ſeven thouſand 'five hundred Pounds; and that the Paſſage over London bridge was ſubject to a preſcriptive Toll, ap- 'propriated to the Support of the ſaid Bridge, upon all Carts, Waggons, and other Carriages, paſſing 'over the ſame to and from the ſaid City, loaden with any kind of Goods or Proviſions, which Toll was 'at that Time in Leaſe for twenty-one Years at a Fine of two thouſand one hundred Pounds, and under 'a yearly Rent of ſeven hundred and thirty-five Pounds; and that it would alſo be of general Advantage 'that the Paſſage over the ſaid Bridge ſhould be freed and exempted as ſoon as might be from the Payment 'of ſuch Tolls; the Redemption of which Tolls, and the Purchaſe of which Leaſe, were eſtimated at the 'Sum of thirty thouſand Pounds: And alſo reciting, That the then Gaol of Newgate, which is not only 'the County Gaol of Middleſex as well as of London, but alſo the General Priſon for Smugglers, and 'Debtors to the Crown, from all Parts of the Kingdom, was ſo ill-contrived as not to admit of a ſufficient 'Supply of freſh Air and Water, from which Circumſtances the ſame was in general unhealthy, and 'often viſited with a malignant Fever called The Gaol Diſtemper, the fatal Effects of which had ſometimes 'extended beyond the Priſon Walls; and that the ſaid Gaol was ſo old and ruinous as to be incapable of 'any effectual Alteration or Repair, and the Charge of building a more airy and commodious one in its 'Stead was eſtimated at the Sum of fifty thouſand Pounds; and alſo reciting, That the Houſe or Building 'called The Royal Exchange, within the ſaid City of London (the daily Place of Reſort of Merchants, 'Traders, Mariners, and others, from all Parts of this Kingdom, and from many foreign Countries), 'was ſo much decayed, that the utter Ruin thereof was apprehended unleſs the ſame ſhould be ſpeedily 'and effectually repaired, which neceſſary Reparations were eſtimated at the Sum of ten thouſand Pounds, 'for which the Funds then ſubſiſting were inſufficient; and that the ſaid ſeveral Sums of fifty-eight thou- 'ſand five hundred Pounds, ſeven thouſand five hundred Pounds, thirty thouſand Pounds, fifty thouſand 'Pounds, and ten thouſand Pounds, amounting together to the Sum of one hundred and fifty-ſix thou- 'ſand Pounds, could not be raiſed, nor any new Fund provided for Repayment of the ſaid Sum of one 'hundred and forty-four thouſand Pounds, with the Intereſt thereof, without the Aid and Authority of 'Parliament: And alſo reciting, That the Surpluſſes which, at the Time of paſſing the ſaid Act, made 'and paſſed in the twenty-firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, had ariſen, 'and the Surpluſſes which had ſince ariſen from the ſaid Fund, had been applied according to the Direc- 'tions of the ſaid Act, and thereby the ſaid Capital Debt, due to the Orphans and other Creditors of the 'ſaid City of London, was, on the twenty-fourth Day of June, in the ſaid Year one thouſand ſeven hun- 'dred and ſixty-ſix, reduced to the Sum of ſix hundred and ten thouſand eighty-four Pounds ſix Shillings 'and Ten-pence, and that (computing the future Surpluſſes at a Medium of the laſt five Years) the 'Whole might be expected to be paid off and diſcharged by the twenty-fifth Day of March, which will 'be in the Year one thouſand eight hundred and three: And that if the ſaid Impoſition of Sixpence for 'every Chaldron or Ton of Coals or Culm was to be further continued to the twenty-ninth Day of Sep- 'tember, which will be in the Year one thouſand eight hundred and thirty-one, the ſaid Fund created by 'the ſaid Act of the fifth and ſixth Years of King William and Queen Mary, with the Addition thereto 'of one thouſand five hundred Pounds per Annum, would (it was computed) be ſufficient in that Time to 'diſcharge the Principal and Intereſt not only of the ſaid Debt due to the ſaid Orphans and other Cre- 'ditors of the ſaid City, but of the ſaid further Sums of one hundred and fifty-ſix thouſand Pounds, and 'one hundred and forty-four thouſand Pounds: And further reciting, That the ſaid Mayor and Com- 'monalty and Citizens were willing and deſirous that the City's Eſtates and Revenues ſhould, from and 'after the twenty-fourth Day of June, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, until the 'ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand eight hundred and thirty-one, be charged with the 'Payment of the ſaid yearly Sum of one thouſand five hundred Pounds towards the Increaſe of the ſaid 'Fund for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, over and above the ſeveral Sums with which the ſaid Eſtates and Re- 'venues then ſtood charged; it was thereby enacted (amongſt other Things), That it ſhould and might 'be lawful to and for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council 'aſſembled, and they were thereby empowered and required, with all convenient Speed, to pull down the 'ſaid Gaol of Newgate, and to remove, diſpoſe of, or deſtroy, the Materials thereof as they ſhould think 'fit (having a Regard to the Health and Safety of his Majeſty's Subjects), and to build a ſpacious and 'commodious new Gaol upon or near the Place where the then Gaol ſtood; provided always, That the 'Money which ſhould ariſe from the Sale of ſuch of the Materials as ſhould be thought expedient to be 'ſold, ſhould be applied towards the Expence of ſuch new Gaol: And to render the Acceſs as well to the 'ſaid new Gaol, as to the Seſſions-houſe in the Old Bailey, more eaſy and convenient, the ſaid Mayor, 'Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council aſſembled, were thereby alſo empowered and authoriſed 'to widen, enlarge, or improve, ſuch of the Streets, Ways, and Paſſages, adjoining or leading to the 'ſaid then intended new Gaol and Seſſions-houſe, or either of them, as they ſhould judge neceſſary for 'that Purpoſe: And it was thereby provided and enacted, That the ſaid new Gaol when built ſhould be 'the County Gaol of and for the ſaid City of London, and of and for the County of Middleſex, in like 'Manner as the then Gaol was by Law, Uſage, or Preſcription; and the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and 'Commons, in Common Council aſſembled, were thereby inveſted with proper Powers for the Purpoſe 'of building the ſaid then intended Gaol, and for the Purchaſe of ſuch Houſes, Lands, Tenements, or 'Hereditaments, as they ſhould judge fit to be purchaſed, removed, or pulled down, for that Purpoſe: 'And it was thereby enacted, That it ſhould and might be lawful to and for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, 'and
